

House To Allow Retired People Extra $1,500

WASHINGTON (AP) — Retired people could earn up to $4,500 more without losing Social Security benefits under a plan approved by a House subcommittee, whose chairman says the current limit reduces the elderly to eating pet food.

Recipients who now earn more than $3,000 lose $1 in benefits for every $2 they bring in above the ceiling. That limitation, says Rep. James A. Burke, D-Miss., means some retirees are "living on a diet of cat and dog food."

In a move experts say could affect a million people, the House Ways and Means subcommittee on Social Security Wednesday tentatively approved raising the allowance in 1978.

Under the proposal, recipients could earn $6,000 in 1979 without facing an aid cutback.

The limit on exempt earnings this year is $3,000. It is expected to go to $3,240 in 1978 and $3,480 in 1979 under a provision of the existing law that ties benefits to inflation.

Social Security Commissioner James B. Cardwell opposed the change, saying it would be "too costly at this time."

The subcommittee's move, approved unanimously, was a compromise between Republicans, who wanted to abolish the limitation, and Democrats, who backed a smaller hike.

As part of the compromise, the subcommittee agreed that the whole subject would be considered again when the panel takes up long-range changes in Social Security, probably next year.

The subcommittee is now putting together legislation to keep the deficit-plagued Social Security system alive.

All the votes it is now taking are subject to later change or reversal. Burke, the panel chairman, predicted the move "wouldn't get 50 votes against it" if it reaches the House floor.

Partly offsetting the cost of raising the income lid, the subcommittee voted to remove from the law a quirk that allows a retired person to earn as much as he can in a month if he forfeits his benefits for that month.

The cost of raising the earnings limit was estimated at $2 billion in 1979, $2.4 billion in 1980 and $2.5 billion in 1981. The savings from eliminating the monthly option were calculated at $400 million a year.

The subcommittee recommended adding some six million federal, state and local government employees to the system and voted to end the option state and local governments and nonprofit organizations have of withdrawing from Social Security.

Lance Testifies Before Senate Subcommittee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Budget Director Bert Lance, testifying "more in sorrow than in anger," declared to Senate interrogators today that while he may have made mistakes in running his Georgia banks he engaged in no wrongdoing and no cover-up.

Lance told the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee and a national television audience that his rights have "been treated in the most irresponsible and destructive manner" and that allegations leveled against him have been erroneous, misrepresented and exaggerated.

Moreover, he said, "some are completely misunderstood because those making the charge do not have all the facts."

The burly director of the Office and Management and Budget declared "I was a successful businessman ... and I thought I had an important contribution to make by coming into government service."

"The rights that I thought I possessed have gone, one by one, down the drain," Lance said.

"Were my rights protected?" he asked.

"We'll let the American people answer that."

In a slow, solemn drawl, from a witness table emblazoned with "Mr. Lance," the embattled budget director turned one by one to the accusations leveled at him over recent weeks.

"I do not contend that I made no mistakes when running these banks," Lance said in his opening statement to the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee.

"But to accept the assertion that I could not even manage a small country bank, one must ignore the objective facts," he said.

Lance's Home Town Rallies Support

CALHOUN, Ga. (AP) — It was like an old-fashioned revival meeting as the hometown folks stomped their feet, prayed and cheered one of their own — Bert "Good Ole Georgia Boy" Lance.

About 1,500 people — more than one-fifth of Calhoun's population — turned out in a demonstration of support for the director of the federal Office of Management and Budget on the eve of his appearance before a Senate panel investigating his financial affairs.

The crowd gave a standing ovation as the high school band played "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "I Did It My Way."

They had placards saying "Calhoun for Bert" and "Bert's A Good Ole Georgia Boy." They used words like "love," "friendship," and "honesty" to describe Lance, who did not attend the rally.

Ohio Returns $68 Million In Tax Refunds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Nearly $68 million in 1976 state income tax refunds have been mailed to taxpayers so far this year, according to State Auditor Thomas E. Ferguson.

The checks were sent to more than two million Ohioans. The total is more than $3 million more than was refunded all last year, Ferguson said. The average check was $28.46, as compared to last year's average of $26.83.

"Some of the claims are erroneous, some are misrepresented, some are exaggerated and some are completely misunderstood because those making the charge do not have all the facts," Lance said.

The committee, which recommended Lance's confirmation in January, is investigating allegations arising from Lance's activities with the Calhoun First National Bank of Calhoun, Ga., of which he was board chairman, and the National Bank of Georgia in Atlanta, which he served as president.

Lance told the committee that although his discussions with the staff in January "did not include a microscopic review of my affairs," he answered fully and accurately all questions and did not engage in any cover-up.

In regard to loans which he received from banks with which his own banks had special relationships, he said, "in no instance was there a finding that the terms of my loans were more favorable" because of the business ties.

Lance vigorously denied that he backdated any checks to allow him to take income tax deductions for 1976, a possibility suggested in a line of questioning last Friday by Illinois Sen. Charles Percy, ranking Republican on the committee.

"I deeply regret that Sen. Percy saw fit to act in this regrettable matter in making a charge which has no merit whatsoever," he said.

He said checks numbered 919 through 921 in his checkbook were dated prior to checks 917 and 918 because the smaller numbered checks had been removed from the book while

"I'll tell you what kind of a guy he is," said Jack Purcell, who used to be the catcher on the softball team when Lance was pitcher.

"I called him up last year to come speak to the graduating class of the school where I was principal. And even though it rained and the loudspeakers didn't work, he came and he spoke. And when I sent him a check for speaking to the class, he sent the check back because he didn't do it for the money. That's the kind of guy Bert is."

A downpour drove the crowd from the high school football field across the street to a gymnasium, but it didn't dampen their spirits.

Lance's minister, the Rev. Emory Brackman, told of the "very generous" contributions of time and money that Lance and his wife, LaBelle, made to the First Methodist Church. He recalled that Lance received "the highest honor" a United Methodist can receive when he was elected to the church's General Conference.

Lt. Gov. Zell Miller, who shared a double desk with Lance in grammar school, accused the news media of distorting the Lance affair. He denied a statement in an article in a national magazine that quoted him as saying Lance was a poor arithmetic student. "Powerful and ruthless forces" — whom he later identified as the federal bureaucracy — have attacked Lance, Miller said.

"To say that Bert Lance has done something wrong does not make it so," he said.

10,000 Troops Seek Mexican Terrorists

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The government put 10,000 police and troops on full alert today to hunt for a new left-wing terrorist group that claimed responsibility for the worst rash of bomb explosions in Mexico in decades.

Police said 23 blasts injured five persons and did an estimated $20 million worth of damage in Mexico City, Guadalajara and Oaxaca between midnight and 3 a.m. Wednesday. The police said 17 more homemade time bombs were found and disarmed.

Police squads, detective units and special anti-guerrilla military squadrons were making surprise searches and manning roadblocks at numerous points in the country. One unofficial report said 13 suspects had been arrested and taken to a military compound outside Mexico City.

Leaflets signed by the Union of the People, an organization not heard of previously, said it was responsible for the bombs. It called other left-wing terrorist groups "chicken" and vowed to bring "Lenin's revolution" to Mexico to stop "unemployment, hunger and exploitation imposed on the people by the dominant class."

Lawyer Jose Rojo Colorado, who defends accused leftist terrorists, told newsmen in Oaxaca that the Union was founded in that city and had its headquarters there. He said the bombings were in retaliation for recent arrests of members of the Union and other leftist groups.

Mexico City's police chief, Arturo

Durazo, was quoted as saying the "principal leaders of the organization have been identified."

Security forces also were hunting for armed gangs who kidnaped two doctors and three youths and killed the wife of one of the doctors in separate attacks Tuesday in small towns near Mexico City. But police blamed the kidnapings on the 23rd of September Communist League, heretofore the most active urban terrorist organization in the country.

Police believed the bombings were timed to disrupt ceremonies Friday celebrating the 167th anniversary of Mexico's independence from Spain. The bombs damaged or wrecked government buildings and businesses, including Sears Roebuck and Woolworth stores, an American Motors dealer and a Pepsi Cola plant. Among targets where unexploded bombs were found were a General Motors assembly plant and the headquarters of the Colgate Palmolive subsidiary.

YMCA GRAVEL — Sturm and Dillard Co. is donating the gravel for the access road and parking lot at the new Pickaway County Family YMCA under construction on Nicholas Drive. John Fissell (right), of the gravel company, said "We are proud to be a part of this fine project for the community." He is shown with Asa Elsea, a member of the Y building committee. The Y is hoping to have the new building completed by early spring. It will house a swimming pool, gymnasium, multi purpose room and offices.

Health Scholarship Awarded

MISS PORTA MARTIN

The new Circleville Elks Lodge and Berger Hospital Scholarship for Nursing has been awarded to Porta Martin, a 1977 graduate of Logan Elm High School.

The announcement was made by Elks Youth Chairman John Fissell. This first annual scholarship is for a total of $400, half from each sponsor.

The purpose is to promote interest and attract nurses to the local community. Miss Martin has been accepted at the Mt. Carmel School of Nursing and Muskingum College.

During high school, Miss Martin was in the pep club, flag corp, student council and vice president of Girls Athletic Association. She was the Sweetheart Queen and an alternate varsity cheerleader her senior year, the freshman homecoming attendant, a basketball statistician and a member of the junior and senior class plays.

While a senior, Miss Martin visited Muskingum College to participate in courses dealing with health careers. For over three years, she was a Red Cross Volunteer.

Miss Martin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Martin, 25738 Tarlton-Adelphi Road, Laurelville.

20 Die In Air Force Plane Crash

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — An Air Force plane slammed into a mountain and exploded shortly after take off, killing all 20 persons aboard, military officials said.

"One big fireball and that was it," a nearby resident said after the crash late Wednesday night.

Air Force crews using flares and helicopter spotlights recovered at least 15 bodies before dawn today. Authorities said they did not know whether all of the victims were military personnel.

The four-engine jet crashed near the top of Manzano Mountain at 11:45 p.m., just three minutes after takeoff from Kirtland Air Force Base.

An air traffic controller said he tried to warn the pilot the plane was in trouble.

"The first indication we had he was in trouble was when the radar showed he was too close to the mountain and flying too low," said the controller.

"We hit him on the guard frequency and told him to turn right and climb ... but he never did," he said.

The jet was a communications aircraft based at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base in Goldsboro, N.C. An Air Force spokesman said it was on a training mission and was on its way to Nellis Air Force Base in Nevada.

The EC135, described as a "modified 707," stopped in Albuquerque to refuel, the spokesman said.

The plane crashed about 8,500 feet up the Manzano Mountain range, about five miles east of the Kirtland runway.

West Virginia Man Dies; Auto Wrecks

UNDETERMINED DEATH — This was the scene of a 9:11 accident this morning on U.S. Route 23 in the village of South Bloomfield. Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies investigating the accident, along with County Coroner Dr. Ray Carroll, were attempting to determine at press time today whether Nelson L. Washington, 48, of Huntington, W. Va., died from injuries suffered in the crash, or if he died from a fatal heart attack just before the accident. Nelson was driving the AMC Gremlin in the center of the picture, just behind the white parked car.

A West Virginia man died in an auto accident this morning on U.S. Route 23 North in the village of South Bloomfield. At press time however, it had not yet been determined if the motorist had died from injuries suffered in the crash, or if he experienced a fatal heart attack just prior to the accident.

Dead is Nelson L. Washington, 48, of 1306 9th Avenue, Huntington, W. Va. According to Deputy J. R. Fite of the Pickaway County Sheriff's Office, Washington was northbound on U.S. Route 23 when his vehicle left the roadway and struck the front of Shifty's Bar. The car then smashed into a parked car, driving it backwards approximately 28 feet. Washington's car then came to rest in the small parking lot on the north side of the bar.

The Harrison Twp. Emergency Squad was called to the scene, but the victim registered no vital life signs upon the arrival of Sheriff's Deputies. Pickaway County Coroner Dr. Ray Carroll was scheduled to make a determination as to the cause of death late this morning. The body was removed to the Wellman Funeral Home pending removal to Huntington. Washington also had his pet collie dog in the car at the time of the accident, but the animal suffered no serious injuries. The dog was taken to the Pickaway County Animal Shelter by Humane Officers.

Weather

Showers and thundershowers today, tonight and Friday, locally heavy rains likely. Chances of rain are 80 per cent today and tonight, 60 per cent Friday. High Wednesday, 72; low, 60. Temperature today, low 70s; tonight, low 60s.

NEW YORK (AP) —The stock market worked its way ahead today, continuing Wednesday's quiet advance.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks rose almost a point in early trading.

Gainers outnumbered losers by about a 4-3 margin among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Analysts said the market drew support from an analysis by New York's Citibank that concluded that the economy was showing continued strength.

They also noted that traders were preparing for the weekly Thursday afternoon report from the Federal Reserve on the money supply.

Today's early prices included General Telephone & Electronics, up 1/4 at 30 3/4; NCR, ahead 1/4 at 45 1/4, and General Foods, off 1/4 at 33 1/2.

On Wednesday the Dow Jones industrial average picked up 4.15 to 858.71.

Gainers held a 3-2 advantage over losers on the NYSE.

Big Board volume reached 17.33 million shares, up from Tuesday's 10-month low of 14.90 million.

The NYSE's composite index rose .23 to 52.79.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was up .22 at 118.66.

YMCA

INDIAN GUIDES
Chiefs of the Pickaway Plains Y Indian Guides outlined recruitment plans and fall schedule at the monthly longhouse meeting.

The fall recruitment of new braves will start Monday with big braves visiting various city and county schools.

September 20, all little braves and Indian Princesses will wear their Indian costumes to school.

A big recruitment Pow Wow for all boys and girls, 6 to 9 years and their dads will be held Sunday, September 25 at the YMCA from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Participants will learn the story of Y Indian Guides and Princesses and how your child and you can join. Chief Virgil Anderson announced plans for the Fall Campout at Camp Alfred Willson, in Bellefontaine, on October 7, 8, and 9.

Y Indian Guides and Princesses are YMCA parent-child programs for boys and girls, 6 through 9, and their dads. Big and Little Braves are organized into tribes and meet bi-monthly in each others homes.

INDIAN PRINCESSES
Kispoko Longhouse Chief, Bob Scranton and Medicine man, Larry Priest, met to plan the Y Indian Princess Fall program. A special Longhouse Luncheon Meeting will be held Friday Noon at the YMCA for all Indian Princesses. The Indian Princesses will collaborate with the Y Indian Guides in the recruitment of new princesses.

Plans for the princesses Fall Campout at Camp Ernst, Kentucky, Saturday, Oct. 1 and 2 were discussed.

As with the Indian Guides, the Y Princesses is open to all Pickaway County girls 6 to 9 years and their dads.

GRA-Y and TRI-GRAY

Organization teams are visiting various schools, telling 4, 5, and 6th grade boys and girls how they can organize a Gray-Y or Tri-Gray Club in their schools. The grade school club program, led by college students meet twice a month in the schools and on Saturdays at the YMCA. The youth are involved in club meetings, seasonal sports, trips, overnights at the Y, candy sales, Kings Island trips, swims, and many other activities throughout the school year.

"I frequently tear out checks from the checkbook in this matter, so that I will have checks with me when I needed them," he said.

Thus did Lance begin the "day in court," which he had said he so eagerly awaited. Earlier, he had declared his spirits high and his determination undaunted as he headed into the arena of his Senate critics and a future as clouded as his past activities have appeared in the panel's week-old hearing.

Turning to criticism of large overdrafts allowed him and members of his family by the Calhoun bank, Lance said:

"The Calhoun First National Bank for years followed a liberal policy with respect to overdrafts. I make no apology for this practice. It was believed by the bank's management that a liberal overdraft policy was a valuable tool for the bank to use in attracting and retaining customers . . . members of the Lance family were not accorded special favors regarding overdrafts. He said the same applied to suggestions that he had used influence to bring about the lifting of restrictions placed on the Calhoun bank by the

Forecast For The Fields

Here is the agriculture weather advisory for Ohio provided by the National Weather Service:

Wet weather is headed back toward Ohio and it looks like agriculture operations will be held up several more days. Showers and thundershowers will be spreading northward through Ohio today, but will gradually end from the south Friday. A brief period of fair weather will be back Saturday. Another frontal passage on Sunday will bring a brief chance of showers but by Monday partly cloudy and cooler conditions are expected.

FIELD OPERATIONS — Wetting in amounts exceeding one inch are quite likely across much of Ohio in the next 24 to 36 hours. This will be sufficient to delay field work at least until next Monday or Tuesday. Drying will be minimal through Friday, good on Saturday, slow Sunday then improving next week. Some indications suggest a warmer and drier weather pattern should be developing.

TREE FRUIT OPERATIONS — Recent rains have helped orchards and also allowed some additional sizing of apples. Insect problems are tapering off but some leafhoppers are causing some minor defoliation. Some late secondary scab is showing up. Ohio State University extension fruit specialists suggest last spraying of fall crop with preharvest sprays for in storage diseases.

The 30-day weather outlook for mid September to mid October predicts above normal average temperatures. Daily maximums will range from the mid 60s to mid 70s north, the upper 60s to upper 70s central and mainly in 70s to low 80s in south. The daily minimums drop off fast during this period and can be expected to range from mid 40s to mid 50s over much of the state except a little cooler northwest. Precipitation is expected above the median for all of Ohio with amounts ranging from 2.5 to 3.0 inches typical. Agriculturally additional moisture will tend to slow drydown of crops and could delay harvest some. Soils are now at a much higher moisture content than at this time last year so some short periods of soft field conditions could be possible. Above normal temperatures suggest maybe several days of time additional to mature crops before first freeze occurs in October. Good growth conditions for forages and wheat establishment are indicated.

Lance has said that the subject of these restrictions was discussed in a general way when he called on regional banking administrator Donald Tarleton in Atlanta last November 22, but both men have said that Lance did not ask for the restrictions to be lifted.

Lance said the restrictions on the bank were "essentially of no consequence to me" because the bank had already complied with the requirements imposed, including discontinuance of criticized overdraft practices.

"The only matter of concern was the paperwork involved in filing monthly progress reports," he said. This requirement was not lifted.

"The sworn testimony of the persons involved is uncontroverted that at no time did I request or suggest to Mr. Tarleton that the agreement between the comptroller's office and the National Bank of Georgia be rescinded," Lance said.

In regard to the investigation by the U.S. attorney's office, the budget director said, "once again, the false impression has been created that something sinister was involved."

Limestone, Maine, had its first snowfall of the season Wednesday night while all severe thunderstorm activity ended nationwide.

Only a few showers and thundershowers moved across Florida and Tennessee early today.

Other precipitation consisted of scattered showers over Missouri and southern Kansas, reaching into northern Arkansas and southern Illinois. Isolated showers and thundershowers dotted the northern Rockies and extended into Utah and Oregon.

Light rain over Missouri is not expected to significantly affect rivers. Most are receding, but still were above flood stage early today. In northwest Missouri, the Platte River was expected to crest today. On the Missouri River, crests were reached Wednesday in Waverly and Lexington, Mo.

Skies were cloudy overnight. Only California and Texas noted large areas of clear skies.

Market Report

NEW YORK (AP) —The stock market worked its way ahead today, continuing Wednesday's quiet advance.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks rose almost a point in early trading.

Gainers outnumbered losers by about a 4-3 margin among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Analysts said the market drew support from an analysis by New York's Citibank that concluded that the economy was showing continued strength.

They also noted that traders were preparing for the weekly Thursday afternoon report from the Federal Reserve on the money supply.

Today's early prices included General Telephone & Electronics, up 1/4 at 30 3/4; NCR, ahead 1/4 at 45 1/4, and General Foods, off 1/4 at 33 1/4.

On Wednesday the Dow Jones industrial average picked up 4.15 to 858.71.

Gainers held a 3-2 advantage over losers on the NYSE.

Big Board volume reached 17.33 million shares, up from Tuesday's 10-month low of 14.90 million.

The NYSE's composite index rose .23 to 52.79.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was up .22 at 118.66.

INDIAN GUIDES

Chiefs of the Pickaway Plains Y Indian Guides outlined recruitment plans and fall schedule at the monthly longhouse meeting.

The fall recruitment of new braves will start Monday with big braves visiting various city and county schools.

September 20, all little braves and Indian Princesses will wear their Indian costumes to school.

A big recruitment Pow Wow for all boys and girls, 6 to 9 years and their dads will be held Sunday, September 25 at the YMCA from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Participants will learn the story of Y Indian Guides and Princesses and how your child and you can join.

Chief Virgil Anderson announced plans for the Fall Campout at Camp Alfred Willson, in Bellefontaine, on October 7, 8, and 9.

Y Indian Guides and Princesses are YMCA parent-child programs for boys and girls, 6 through 9, and their dads. Big and Little Braves are organized into tribes and meet bi-monthly in each others homes.

INDIAN PRINCESSES

Kispoko Longhouse Chief, Bob Scranton and Medicine man, Larry Priest, met to plan the Y Indian Princess Fall program. A special Longhouse Luncheon Meeting will be held Friday Noon at the YMCA for all Indian Princesses. The Indian Princesses will collaborate with the Y Indian Guides in the recruitment of new princesses.

Plans for the princesses Fall Campout at Camp Ernst, Kentucky, Saturday, Oct. 1 and 2 were discussed. As with the Indian Guides, the Y Princesses is open to all Pickaway County girls 6 to 9 years and their dads.

GRA-Y and TRI-GRAY

Organization teams are visiting various schools, telling 4, 5, and 6th grade boys and girls how they can organize a Gray-Y or Tri-Gray Club in their schools. The grade school club program, led by college students meet twice a month in the schools and on Saturdays at the YMCA. The youth are involved in club meetings, seasonal sports, trips, overnights at the Y, candy sales, Kings Island trips, swims, and many other activities throughout the school year.

BOYS WRESTLING

Dave Webb will offer Wrestling instructions at the YMCA Thursday. A Page Of Opinion

Wintry Repeat

It is easy to overlook amateur weather forecasts, especially the long-range variety. The fact is, few are remembered moments after they are given.

But over its 161 years, the Farmers' Almanac has developed a mystique of its own. Some of its avid readers swear it is nearly infallible. Others won't go that far, but they are intrigued at least by the homespun humor to be found in its pages and if pressed on the matter will admit reluctantly to reading its forecasts of the coming seasons.

For many people, the bitter cold and heavy snows of the winter of 1976-77 will be recalled for a long time. Not only because it was so cold but because the record-setting low temperatures collided with soaring fuel bills.

What did the Almanac say about last year? It predicted a "big, bad winter" followed by a "scorchingly hot" summer. That is why some readers already are beginning to shiver over this year's prediction that the approaching winter will bring more of the same, though not quite as extreme.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Thursday, September 15th, the 258th day of 1977. There are 107 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1949, Konrad Adenauer became the first chancellor of West Germany.

On this date:

In 1777, the Polish aristocrat, Count Casimir Pulaski, was commissioned a major general in the American Revolutionary Army.

In 1789, the U. S. Department of Foreign Affairs changed its name to the Department of State.

In 1914, during World War I, German New Guinea and the Bismarck Archipelago surrendered to the British.

In 1938, British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain flew to Germany to try to mediate a German-Czechoslovak dispute.

In 1942, in World War II, German armies attacked the Soviet city of Stalingrad.

In 1959, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev arrived in Washington to begin a 13-day visit to the United States.

Ten years ago: The liner Queen Mary, no longer able to compete with air travel, began its last voyage across the Atlantic to New York.

Five years ago: Secretary of State Henry Kissinger met in Paris with North Vietnam's top negotiator, Le Duc Tho.

One year ago: Daniel Moynihan was declared winner, over Bella Abzug, of the Democratic nomination for the Senate from New York.

Today's birthdays: Opera singer Hilde Gueden is 54 years old. Singer and pianist Bobby Short is 53.

Thought for today: We must beware of trying to build a society in which nobody counts for anything except a politician or an official — Winston Churchill.

Levitation Courses Offered

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, the Indian guru who introduced the technique of Transcendental Meditation to the western world, is now offering us courses in - hold onto your seats! - levitation.

The Maharishi believes all things are possible when the deepest levels of consciousness are reached.

"Your mind tells your body to walk," he says, simply. "Why shouldn't it tell you to fly?"

A graduate of the "Citizens' Advanced Course" in the technique of levitating described the experience

Do I believe people can be taught to levitate? I certainly do not."

After talking to Mary, I returned to my hotel room and telephoned the World Plan Executive Council, national headquarters for the Maharishi's TM program. Within hours, I was visited by Dr. Barry Charles and Kathrin Unger, two young advanced meditators who have learned the delicate science of levitation. They explained, but did not demonstrate ("It's an extremely sensitive practice," said Ms. Unger, not conducive to sudden lift-off in a public place) what the program means.

For three years, the practice of Transcendental Meditation has been spreading around the world. "The main goal has always been to establish the full potential of human beings," said Dr. Charles. "Maharishi has always said that if just one per cent of the people in a community practice the TM technique, their influence will spread and improve the quality of life as a whole." This theory apparently has been statistically proven correct in several U.S. communities, where crime rates have dropped markedly, and health and behavioral standards of the people improved. Sometimes called "The Maharishi Effect" by his followers, the research conducted has satisfied everyone involved in the movement that "we are at the dawn of the Age of Enlightenment," Dr. Charles went on.

Okay. The spread of the Transcendental Meditation technique, plus the medical and scientific research that followed and supported it (dozens of books have been published on its efficacy), was only "Phase I" of the Maharishi's dream of evolving a more perfect world.

"Phase II," explains Charles, "is a breakthrough . . . Unwilling to stop at creating an ideal society, the aim is now to create an ideal human being, a human being with such "expansion of consciousness and deep inner bliss" that he or she possesses "supernormal abilities."

The first of these supernormal abilities is the aforementioned thought-imposed power to levitate oneself off the ground. "This may seem surprising to some people, but it is not," says Ms. Unger softly. "Out of 1,000 students in our first course, 978 were able to lift off." (The lessons, which require considerably more time and money than TM courses, involve four to eight weeks of study, in residence, at a cost of $250 a week.)

The next courses toward being an "ideal" human are even more mind-boggling. Using formulas developed by the Veda, ancient community of Indian scholars whose meditative techniques were adapted by the Maharishi to form his TM program, students will be taught:

—To make themselves invisible; to refine intuition into supernatural perception of the future.

At a certain point, one's susceptibility toward believing the seemingly impossible becomes blunted. "Oh, come on - make ourselves invisible?" "Maharishi says the consciousness is a field of all possibilities," said Dr. Charles Seriously. "The mind can perform wonders upon the body. The body ceases to reflect light. It absorbs light," Thus, invisibility.

It is difficult to believe. But scientific research is even now being conducted which, the Maharishi's followers claim, will show the benefits of these Phase II ventures. Will these seeming miracles of the mind over body really materialize (or dematerialize?) in our lifetimes.

I would love to have the time, and money, to find out . . .

Speaking Of Your Health

I'm 68 and have been suffering with arthritis of the hip for many years. I've read that it's now possible to replace the hip. I want to have it done, but my children think it's not safe at my age. Can you tell me more about this operation?

Mr. G.U., Ind.

My boy friend shoots alcohol into his veins. He wants me to try it.

Miss X, N.C.

Dear Miss X:

Run, don't walk, in any direction, so long as it is far away from this threat to your life.

It is hard to believe that this nonsense has been added to all the other dangerous "thrills" that can be created only by sick minds.

You must not fall into the trap that is being set for you. Quickly discuss this with your parents, your doctor or your religious advisor. There are death-dealing possibilities in this outrageous caper.

"I was sitting on a couch meditating at the time. I felt a tremendous amount of energy go through me and simultaneously I had a vision of my spine and my chest being just white light and a form in the air some place, and then my body moved up and down on the couch about three times. I thought, 'Oh, what is this?' and the next experience I had was of hearing my body touch the floor. I say 'hearing' because I didn't feel it until after I heard it. It touched down very, very softly. There was very little feeling of contact. I am told I moved about a six-foot distance that first time."

It is hard to conceive, isn't it? Developing the ability to lift oneself off the ground.

Skeptics abound. Even many of the thousands upon thousands of us who enlisted in the Transcendental Meditation courses, and found them marvelously relaxing and invigorating, may feel the Maharishi may be overstepping himself in promising we can defy the law of gravity. In Los Angeles last week, Mary Tyler Moore - one of the early students of the TM technique - told me, "I'm ashamed of the (TM) movement."

Okay. The spread of the Transcendental Meditation technique, plus the medical and scientific research that followed and supported it (dozens of books have been published on its efficacy), was only "Phase I" of the Maharishi's dream of evolving a more perfect world.

Fans Do Not Question Farrah's Acting Ability

STEVENSON, Wash. (AP) — The question of Farrah Fawcett-Majors' acting ability is irrelevant to her fans, says the one-time press agent of the 1950s' ultimate sex goddess, Marilyn Monroe.

"When I handled Marilyn, in her happy days, she was extraordinary," said Roy Craft, recalling his five years, 1952-1957, with the actress. "The difference is, perhaps, that Fawcett-Majors is more of a personality. But an extraordinary personality."

Craft, editor emeritus of the weekly Skamania County Pioneer who says he finds Miss Fawcett-Majors "delightful," said there is a simple rule in show business: Hustle what you have.

"If you are talking about popularity, marketability, the acting isn't important. Any fine dramatic actress will play the role to which she's assigned," he said.

"But when you get a personality, I think it's a mistake to have her play anything but herself . . . The thing is, when someone turns to Farrah Fawcett-Majors on TV, they want Farrah Fawcett-Majors. The question of her acting ability is beside the point."

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I'm 68 and have been suffering with arthritis of the hip for many years. I've read that it's now possible to replace the hip. I want to have it done, but my children think it's not safe at my age. Can you tell me more about this operation?

Mr. G.U., Ind.

Dear Mr. U.:

I'm certain that your children are sympathetic and protective of you. However, they are not suffering the intense pain that you are.

Total hip replacement is probably one of the most dramatic advances made in modern surgery. People with long-standing osteoarthritis and severe rheumatoid arthritis who suffer severe pain, and cannot function in daily activities, have been given a second life by the wonders of this operation.

At your age, surgery can still be performed with great safety if you fall into the category of being the "ideal" patient for the operation.

Patients who have gotten little or no relief from anti-inflammatory drugs are carefully evaluated before such surgery is contemplated. Complex X-rays of the hip and the hip socket are performed. After examination of the heart, the lungs, the blood pressure are all taken into consideration, the general condition of the patient is evaluated.

Once a patient is chosen for the operation, the greatest advantages are in his favor. Most patients who have had total hip replacement with a metal hip say that even the immediate post-operative pain is less than the pain they had suffered before.

The results are often spectacular. Patients who were formerly incapacitated, and barely hobbled around, after surgery are able to function again at work and within the home.

Why don't you and your children discuss every facet of the operation, and the aftercare, with the orthopedic surgeon chosen by your own doctor?

My boy friend shoots alcohol into his veins. He wants me to try it.

Miss X, N.C.

Dear Miss X:

Run, don't walk, in any direction, so long as it is far away from this threat to your life.

It is hard to believe that this nonsense has been added to all the other dangerous "thrills" that can be created only by sick minds.

You must not fall into the trap that is being set for you. Quickly discuss this with your parents, your doctor or your religious advisor. There are death-dealing possibilities in this outrageous caper.

Fans Do Not Question Farrah's Acting Ability

STEVENSON, Wash. (AP) — The question of Farrah Fawcett-Majors' acting ability is irrelevant to her fans, says the one-time press agent of the 1950s' ultimate sex goddess, Marilyn Monroe.

"When I handled Marilyn, in her happy days, she was extraordinary," said Roy Craft, recalling his five years, 1952-1957, with the actress. "The difference is, perhaps, that Fawcett-Majors is more of a personality. But an extraordinary personality."

Craft, editor emeritus of the weekly Skamania County Pioneer who says he finds Miss Fawcett-Majors "delightful," said there is a simple rule in show business: Hustle what you have.

"If you are talking about popularity, marketability, the acting isn't important. Any fine dramatic actress will play the role to which she's assigned," he said.

"But when you get a personality, I think it's a mistake to have her play anything but herself... The thing is, when someone turns to Farrah Fawcett-Majors on TV, they want Farrah Fawcett-Majors. The question of her acting ability is beside the point."

Rhodes Still Hopeful On Industry, Jobs Bill

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Not There For Backrub

DEAR ABBY: In reply to HURT WIFE, who asked, "What makes a happily married, religious man go to a place like a massage parlor?" You replied, "Curiosity. Lust. An itch for variety. The fear of missing something. Wanting to be 'one of the boys.' Being too chicken to refuse when one of his pals suggested it. Temporary insanity."

Abby, did it ever occur to you that maybe he just wanted a massage!

ARTHUR
DEAR ARTHUR: It's possible. But if YOU had been writing this column for more than 20 years, I'll bet that's the LAST answer you'd have come up with.

DEAR ABBY: I may be old-fashioned, but I can't see teaching sixth and seventh graders sex in the

Gas Chief Says Energy Plan A Flop

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP) — The president of the East Ohio Gas Co. said Wednesday that President Carter's energy plan is a good first stab at setting a national energy conservation policy.

But as an energy production policy, he said it's a flop.

East Ohio president Dudley J. Taw spoke at an Industrial Appreciation Day dinner in Ashtabula.

He said it would take 20,000 people and $10.5 billion a year to administer Carter's energy policy.

Taw said the United States has enough "gaseous energy supplies ... to last a thousand years," but it will cost money to produce those supplies.

"If they would allow America's producers to retain all that energy tax money to spend on drilling new gas wells, we'd have gas coming out of our ears," Taw said.

"We cannot produce those supplies under yesterday's rules nor at yesterday's prices," he said.

Taw called the Carter plan "the largest tax bill in history to be imposed on the backs of American taxpayers."

"Make no mistake about it," he said. "Those taxes will all come out of the pocket of the individual taxpayer, for the corporations don't really pay taxes; they only collect 'hidden' taxes for the government from the people who pay for the industries' products and services."

Survey Shows Female Views On Education

WESTERVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Seventy per cent of the female school board members in Ohio believe the state's education system channels girls and boys into different career directions, according to an Ohio School Boards Association survey.

The survey found 73 per cent of the women felt this was wrong.

On other topics the survey found: 89 per cent of the respondents thought girls' athletics as important as boys' athletics; 66 per cent felt there are no important inborn differences in the emotional and intellectual capacities of males and females, and 47 per cent felt the Equal Rights Amendment should be ratified.

schoolroom. They are a long way from needing that kind of information. Why rush them? If you start putting ideas about sex into their heads, first thing you know, they'll start experimenting.

No wonder we have so many unmarried mothers among teenagers. I read in your column that venereal disease is now an epidemic in this country.

What can be done to stop all this sex education, Abby?

CONCERNED IN ILLINOIS
DEAR CONCERNED: If there really WERE all the sex education you claim there is, we'd have LESS teenage pregnancy and V.D.-not more.

No one has to put "ideas" about sex into the heads of children. It's there already. Sexual feelings and curiosity about sex are natural and normal in all children. And so is experimenting.

Ideally, parents should provide their children with a proper sex education, but surveys show that most of them do not, so some schools provide it. Unfortunately, the only states that have laws requiring sex education in the schools are Hawaii, Kentucky, Michigan, Maryland, Missouri and North Dakota. (Louisiana expressly forbids it.) The old saying, "What you don't know can't hurt you" is not true. On the contrary-it CAN hurt you. And it's hurting all of us.

DEAR ABBY: Why do people place so much importance on manners? From the time kids learn to walk and talk, adults hassle them about manners and being polite.

I don't see what good it does to stand up when an older person or a lady comes into the room. And there are dozens of other rules that come under the heading of "manners" that make no sense at all.

Maybe you can explain it to me.

DON'T GET IT
DEAR DON'T: To answer your question, no one said it better than the late and great Amy Vanderbilt:

"Good manners are the traffic rules for society in general. Without good manners, living would be chaotic, human beings unbearable to each other. Reduced to a phrase, good manners is consideration of other people in respect to their feelings, their safety, their privacy and their full social rights and privileges."

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Encouraged by President Carter's support for the tax incentive concept, Gov. James A. Rhodes remains hopeful that the legislature will approve his bills to aid private industry and create jobs.

But what a difference a year makes. Angered by inaction, Rhodes called the legislature into special session about one year ago, demanding action on his industrial development package.

Majority Democratic leaders gave the bills cursory consideration and adjourned the special session without bringing any legislation to the floor for a vote.

Rhodes submitted a similar program earlier this year and, again, it has received scant attention.

But he told the Ohio Building Trades Council this week, "I think we're going to get better cooperation in the legislature." With most of the regular 1977 business completed or in the final stages, it appears unlikely that cooperation in the form of passage of the measures will come before 1978, if then.

"We note that Washington has recognized the need for development of private industry jobs through tax and financial incentives," Rhodes said. "These two bills we use as examples will generate a positive attitude and image of Ohio as a state

One bill, sponsored by Sen. William F. Bowen, D-9 Cincinnati, would allow local communities with high unemployment rates and severe physical deterioration to negotiate tax abatement plans with private industry that agreed to move into hard-hit neighborhoods.

A second proposal, carried by Senate Minority Leader Michael J. Maloney, R-7 Cincinnati, gives a personal property tax break on newly-acquired machinery and equipment for three years after purchase. After that, the equipment would be taxed at its true value.

"Ohio's manufacturing plants suffer from a high rate of obsolescence," Rhodes said. "While the national rate for plant obsolescence averages 8 to 10 per cent, in Ohio one out of five, and in some industries one out of four plants are obsolete."

COMMUNITY SERVICES — Steve Stevenson and Joan Eller listen to Joseph Zaig from the Ohio Bureau of Employment after the Community Services Luncheon Tuesday. Stevenson, president of the Circleville area Chamber of Commerce, spoke to the group about the activities of the chamber. He said that the committees, such as legislative, education, retail merchants, safety and agri-business are as community-minded as the groups represented at the luncheon meeting. Stevenson and the chamber have been trying to form a new committee this year, which would give pros and cons on city and county problems.

PUCO Sets Exemptions For Columbia Gas Users

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Columbia Gas of Ohio may not charge some self-help natural gas customers for emergency gas purchases, the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio said Wednesday.

PUCO exempted those customers who use only their own gas or who specify their emergency needs in advance.

The commission further ordered that the cost of any emergency gas purchased by Columbia be allocated over the five-month winter heating season rather than a full year.

The modifications were a result of a motion for rehearing filed by the Ohio Manufacturers Association and Whirlpool Corp.

The OMA contended that making companies which have contracted for self-help gas liable for additional emergency purchases would undermine the self-help program.

Self-help gas is purchased directly from the producer, but transmitted to the customer through the distribution company.

The changes affect a commission order of July 22 which authorized Columbia to buy emergency supplies without a specific contract in advance from each prospective user and to allocate the cost among all customers in a curtailment class if that group benefits from the emergency volumes.

Wednesday's PUCO order exempted self-help customers who do not use any emergency gas purchased by the company and established a formula to calculate their share of the rolled-through cost if they use a portion of the emergency volumes under certain calculations.

In other action Wednesday, the agency:

—Agreed to hear a complaint alleging illegal backbilling practices by the Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co.

PUCO upheld the right of the Consumers' Counsel to represent CG&E customers in their complaint and ordered the utility to answer the complaint 15 days.

The complaint asks that CG&E be prevented from estimating the gas bills without reading the meter for unreasonable periods of time.

The counsel said one customer had been charged for $510 for unmetered electric service from October 1974 through November 1976 because the meter was improperly functioning.

—Heard a request from Toledo Edison Co. for approval of 80 per cent of a requested $55.6 million rate increase on an interim basis while applications were studied for the full amount.

The company also asked that the cost of nuclear fuel for the Davis Besse Nuclear Power Station be deleted from the company's fuel cost adjustment until the facility is included in the company's rate base. The nuclear power station would become part of the rate structure upon approval by PUCO of the Sept. 1 rate request.

AT BOOKS IN THE CHILDREN'S LIBRARY

Greetings from your public library! With Fall just around the corner, it seems appropriate to review books in the Children's Room which pertain to Autumn.

Start with poetry to catch the feeling of this invigorating season. In "Hello, Year," an easy-to-read collection of short verse, are a number of simple poems dealing with Fall which small children should enjoy. (808.81)

Older children will find a special section of autumnal poetry in "Poems for Seasons and Celebrations" (808.81) and an even more extensive section in "Sing a Song of Seasons" (811.08). Included are works by Emily Dickinson, Walter de la Mare, Carl Sandburg, and other notables.

A few of our picture books with Fall themes are Robert McCloskey's Caldecott winner "Time of Wonder", Mark Taylor's "Henry Explores the Mountains," and Janice May Udry's "Emily's Autumn." McCloskey's book captures the magic of summer on an island and of Fall's gradual arrival and vacation's end. God and orange colors dominate the second story, in which young Henry decides to explore the mountains before winter sets in and winds up having a very exciting adventure — complete with avalanche and forest fire! "Emily's Autumn" nostalgically relates a little girl's visit to her grandmother's farm where she observes first hand the signs of Fall.

Inquisitive students and nature lovers investigating autumn won't want to overlook our nonfiction section. In the 582's you'll find numerous books about trees whether you're looking for information about trees in general or are trying to identify a particular one. You may also want to browse through the 590's shelves to learn more about animals and their pre-winter activities.

Whatever your interests, come visit us in the library soon. But be careful — you just may fall into a good book!

$1 Million In Facilities Added To Park

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — More than $1 million in new recreation facilities at Barkcamp State Park in Belmont County will be dedicated Monday.

The facilities include a special fishing area for handicapped persons, expansion of an existing camping area and a new service building heated by solar energy.

Gov. James A. Rhodes, Ohio Natural Resources Director Robert W. Teater and other officials will be on hand for the 1 p.m. ceremonies.

The project was funded by the state, the Appalachian Regional Commission and the U.S. Bureau of Outdoor Recreation.

Kitts, Fort Gay, W. Va., to Berger Hospital, possible internal bleeding; Sept. 7, Vaughan Rose, Scioto Estates, transported to Berger Hospital, injured arm; Sept. 8, examined Rebecca Wright, difficulty in breathing;

Sept. 9, examined Linda Burns, 135 Maple Street, possible sprained ankle; examined Ernestine Craig, Plum Street, difficulty in breathing; examined infant, Donald Little, 192 East Street, injured head; examined Melvin Holt, Jr., Poplar Grove Trailer Court, injured leg; transported Paul Leach of Five Points, to Berger Hospital, injured arm; transported Mary Ann Baldwin, Scioto Estates, to Doctors Hospital, North, illness.

The Ashville Pythian Sisters will meet in the K. P. Hall Sept. 20 at 7:30 p.m. Serving on the social committee will be Judy Campbell, Janet Cline, Carol Higgins and Judy Lambert.

The Teays Valley Little League held its 1977 picnic at the Ashville Park on Aug. 25. Trophies were given to first and second place teams. Those teams were Major League; first, Ashville Pharmacy and Second, Ashville Hardware. Minor League; first, Kraft Insurance and second, Ashville Cardinal; Tee Ball, first Ashville Coffee Shop, second, Toole Electric.

New Officers were voted in as follows: John Seymour, president; Ron Kanipes, first vice-president; Charles Cordle, second vice-president; Jack States, treasurer and Cheryl Everts, secretary.

We would like to take this time to thank our outgoing officers, sponsors, parents and especially the boys and girls for their help and cooperation in every way for making this a very successful year for our league. Also a special thanks for those people giving donations to our bake sale and yard sale held in April at Webster's Carryout and our bake sale at the Farmer's Market this past month. Thanks again and we hope to see all of you again next year.

The annual Reese Reunion will be held September 18 at the Ashville Community Park. A carry-in dinner will be served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Toole visited this past weekend with their son Bill at Iowa Lakes Junior College.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cordle and Charles, Jr., Butch and Carol Webster and family, and Chuck and Charlene Malone and daughter wish to thank their family and friends for the help they gave them at the time of the loss of their mother and grandmother, Ann Cordle. It was all greatly appreciated.

The United Methodist Women held their monthly meeting at the Village Church last Thursday evening. President Helen Toole presided during the business meeting. The secretary's report was given by Velma Purcell and the report of the treasurer by Carolyn Lutz. The group again renewed their pledge to Missions and decided to give a donation to JAM at the meeting to be held in Grove City on October 1. A committee was appointed by the president to check on the list of books which will be offered in the Reading Program and they are to report at the next meeting.

Charlotte Rife, Marilyn Sabine and Ethel Siegle volunteered to serve coffee, punch, donuts and cookies during the social hour following the worship service on Sunday morning. The society will have the social hour once a month.

Mrs. Toole presented the Rev. Bev Faulk of Commercial Point who gave the program for the evening. She showed a film entitled "Women in Ministry". The film followed the course of a young woman who chose to become a minister and told of some of the obstacles she met in doing so. Following the film the Rev. Faulk told of how she became a minister, when she received the call, and some of her experiences as a minister. It proved to be quite an interesting program.

A social hour was enjoyed by the Rev. Faulk, Bonnie Marckel, Helen Toole, Virgie Vause, Marge Wilson, Shirley Rathburn, Ethel Siegle, Alice Purcell, Stella Morrison, Carolyn Lutz, Mildred Fullen, Phyllis Malloy, Charlotte Rife, Mallyn Sabine and Velma Purcell.

The Past Chiefs Club of the Pythian Sisters will meet in the home of Arlene Fortner on Sept. 22 at 7:30 p.m.

Assisting hostesses will be Georgia Hoover, Jean Schiff and Rosemary Plum.

Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Owens, Susie and Carla were Mr. and Mrs. Rick Withers and Shauna, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Willoughby, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Becky and Angie Willoughby and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Willoughby.

The occasion was in honor of Carla Owens who was celebrating her sixth birthday. Refreshments of cake, ice cream, coffee and iced tea were served.

Becky Tosca wishes to thank each and every person for the many, many cards, flowers, gifts, delicious food and all other acts of kindness and thoughts of concern she received while in the hospital and since returning home.

The September meeting of the Fellowship Class of the Village United Methodist Church will be held at the home of Dick and Clarabelle Pobst on Saturday at 6 p.m.

We aren't looking for professionals, we're looking for volunteers to help paint the trim on the railroad station, this Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m. Bring a big brush if you can. Clean-up material will be on hand.

Wednesday, Sept. 7, the Rev. and Mrs. John Currens, Mollie Powell, Hazel Ward, Mae Alexander, Gladys Rush, Peg Trimble, Sonia Seymour and Dorothy Cook enjoyed lunch at the Valley House in Chillicothe and then visited the Wearever Store to purchase some pans for the church.

They journeyed on to Piketon to visit Ida Plummer in the Pleasant Hill Convalescent Center and help her celebrate her birthday. A decorated cake, ice cream and punch was enjoyed by the group after singing "Happy Birthday" to Ida who was observing her 88th birthday.

Capt. William Dore' arrived in South Korea last week for a year of duty with the Field Artillery there. His wife, Stephanie, is residing in Massillon, Ohio, where she is teaching.

A Luther League Retreat was held at Burr Oak this past Saturday and Sunday. Attending from the First English Lutheran Church of Ashville were Mrs. Georgia Dore' and Mrs. Jane Wilson, both serving as counselors and Nancy Wilson and Cheryl Norris.

Those attending from St. Matthew Lutheran in Lockbourne were counselors, the Rev. and Mrs. Wilmer Hallman, Mrs. Francine Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Campbell and youths Charles and Martin Hafey, John and Rose Gutheil, Pam Osborne and Dee Dee Chester.

LE Board Plans Levy Campaign

"Citizen Involvement" and "tell it like it is" were two key phrases used by the Logan Elm Board of Education, when it met Monday evening for an organizational meeting to promote the 3.5 mill operating levy. The levy will be on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Citizens of the school district, board members, administrators and teachers will be involved in an all out effort to promote the levy. Citizen committees will be formed to carry out certain functions; speakers will be available for PTOs and other groups; hand-outs, posters and lighted displays as well as The Herald and WNRE will be utilized for presenting information. An "open meeting" will be held and a "hot-line" established prior to the Nov. 8 election, place and time for both will be announced later.

All concerned citizens of the Logan Elm School district are encouraged to become involved in this important undertaking, why? Because passage of the 3.5 mill operating levy is crucial to our children's education, it will enable Logan Elm Schools to continue operating in 1978.

Other items enacted were employment of two elementary teacher aids and one study hall monitor for the High School. All board members and Superintendent John Henn were present. The next regular board meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Oct. 4 at the district office at the McDowell Building.

South Bloomfield Gets New Truck

The village of South Bloomfield has accepted delivery of a new International dump truck with snow plow from William Davie of H&S Service Inc., Circleville. The truck replaces a 1954 model according to Mayor Albert Roese.

One of the earliest and best of the Ohio landscape artists was George Jacob Beck, 1749-1812, who arrived in Cincinnati in 1790 as a scout with Anthony Wayne's army.—AP

Ashville News

MRS. JOHN SABINE, PHONE 983-2086

The Harrison Township Emergency Squad made the following runs this past week; Sept. 5, assisted Robert Cromley, Cromley Road, fell at home; examined Charles O'Day, Jr., age 2, injured leg; Sept. 6, transported Norman F. Kitts, Fort Gay, W. Va., to Berger Hospital, possible internal bleeding; Sept. 7, Vaughan Rose, Scioto Estates, transported to Berger Hospital, injured arm; Sept. 8, examined Rebecca Wright, difficulty in breathing;

Sept. 9, examined Linda Burns, 135 Maple Street, possible sprained ankle; examined Ernestine Craig, Plum Street, difficulty in breathing; examined infant, Donald Little, 192 East Street, injured head; examined Melvin Holt, Jr., Poplar Grove Trailer Court, injured leg; transported Paul Leach of Five Points, to Berger Hospital, injured arm; transported Mary Ann Baldwin, Scioto Estates, to Doctors Hospital, North, illness.

The Ashville Pythian Sisters will meet in the K. P. Hall Sept. 20 at 7:30 p.m. Serving on the social committee will be Judy Campbell, Janet Cline, Carol Higgins and Judy Lambert.

The Teays Valley Little League held its 1977 picnic at the Ashville Park on Aug. 25. Trophies were given to first and second place teams. Those teams were Major League; first, Ashville Pharmacy and Second, Ashville Hardware. Minor League; first, Kraft Insurance and second, Ashville Cardinal; Tee Ball, first Ashville Coffee Shop, second, Toole Electric.

New Officers were voted in as follows: John Seymour, president; Ron Kanipes, first vice-president; Charles Cordle, second vice-president; Jack States, treasurer and Cheryl Everts, secretary.

We would like to take this time to thank our outgoing officers, sponsors, parents and especially the boys and girls for their help and cooperation in every way for making this a very successful year for our league. Also a special thanks for those people giving donations to our bake sale and yard sale held in April at Webster's Carryout and our bake sale at the Farmer's Market this past month. Thanks again and we hope to see all of you again next year.

The annual Roese Reunion will be held September 18 at the Ashville Community Park. A carry-in dinner will be served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Toole visited this past weekend with their son Bill at Iowa Lakes Junior College.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cordle and Charles, Jr., Butch and Carol Webster and family, and Chuck and Charlene Malone and daughter wish to thank their family and friends for the help they gave them at the time of the loss of their mother and grandmother, Ann Cordle. It was all greatly appreciated.

The United Methodist Women held their monthly meeting at the Village Church last Thursday evening. President Helen Toole presided during the business meeting. The secretary's report was given by Velma Purcell and the report of the treasurer by Carolyn Lutz. The group again renewed their pledge to Missions and decided to give a donation to JAM at the meeting to be held in Grove City on October 1. A committee was appointed by the president to check on the list of books which will be offered in the Reading Program and they are to report at the next meeting.

Charlotte Rife, Marilyn Sabine and Ethel Siegle volunteered to serve coffee, punch, donuts and cookies during the social hour following the worship service on Sunday morning. The society will have the social hour once a month.

Mrs. Toole presented the Rev. Bev Faulk of Commercial Point who gave the program for the evening. She showed a film entitled "Women in Ministry". The film followed the course of a young woman who chose to become a minister and told of some of the obstacles she met in doing so. Following the film the Rev. Faulk told of how she became a minister, when she received the call, and some of her experiences as a minister. It proved to be quite an interesting program.

A social hour was enjoyed by the Rev. Faulk, Bonnie Marckel, Helen Toole, Virgie Vause, Marge Wilson, Shirley Rathburn, Ethel Siegle, Alice Purcell, Stella Morrison, Carolyn Lutz, Mildred Fullen, Phyllis Malloy, Charlotte Rife, Mallyn Sabine and Velma Purcell.

The Past Chiefs Club of the Pythian Sisters will meet in the home of Arlene Fortner on Sept. 22 at 7:30 p.m.

Assisting hostesses will be Georgia Hoover, Jean Schiff and Rosemary Plum.

Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Owens, Susie and Carla were Mr. and Mrs. Rick Withers and Shauna, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Willoughby, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Becky and Angie Willoughby and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Willoughby.

The occasion was in honor of Carla Owens who was celebrating her sixth birthday. Refreshments of cake, ice cream, coffee and iced tea were served.

Becky Tosca wishes to thank each and every person for the many, many cards, flowers, gifts, delicious food and all other acts of kindness and thoughts of concern she received while in the hospital and since returning home.

The September meeting of the Fellowship Class of the Village United Methodist Church will be held at the home of Dick and Clarabelle Pobst on Saturday at 6 p.m.

We aren't looking for professionals, we're looking for volunteers to help paint the trim on the railroad station, this Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m. Bring a big brush if you can. Clean-up material will be on hand.

Wednesday, Sept. 7, the Rev. and Mrs. John Currens, Mollie Powell, Hazel Ward, Mae Alexander, Gladys Rush, Peg Trimble, Sonia Seymour and Dorothy Cook enjoyed lunch at the Valley House in Chillicothe and then visited the Wearever Store to purchase some pans for the church.

They journeyed on to Piketon to visit Ida Plummer in the Pleasant Hill Convalescent Center and help her celebrate her birthday. A decorated cake, ice cream and punch was enjoyed by the group after singing "Happy Birthday" to Ida who was observing her 88th birthday.

Capt. William Dore' arrived in South Korea last week for a year of duty with the Field Artillery there. His wife, Stephanie, is residing in Massillon, Ohio, where she is teaching.

A Luther League Retreat was held at Burr Oak this past Saturday and Sunday. Attending from the First English Lutheran Church of Ashville were Mrs. Georgia Dore' and Mrs. Jane Wilson, both serving as counselors and Nancy Wilson and Cheryl Norris.

Those attending from St. Matthew Lutheran in Lockbourne were counselors, the Rev. and Mrs. Wilmer Hallman, Mrs. Francine Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Campbell and youths Charles and Martin Hafe, John and Rose Guthell, Pam Osborne and Dee Dee Chester.

LE Board Plans Levy Campaign

"Citizen Involvement" and "tell it like it is" were two key phrases used by the Logan Elm Board of Education, when it met Monday evening for an organizational meeting to promote the 3.5 mill operating levy. The levy will be on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Citizens of the school district, board members, administrators and teachers will be involved in an all out effort to promote the levy. Citizen committees will be formed to carry out certain functions; speakers will be available for PTOs and other groups; hand-outs, posters and lighted displays as well as The Herald and WNRE will be utilized for presenting information. An "open meeting" will be held and a "hot-line" established prior to the Nov. 8 election, place and time for both will be announced later.

All concerned citizens of the Logan Elm School district are encouraged to become involved in this important undertaking, why? Because passage of the 3.5 mill operating levy is crucial to our children's education, it will enable Logan Elm Schools to continue operating in 1978.

Other items enacted were employment of two elementary teacher aids and one study hall monitor for the High School. All board members and Superintendent John Henn were present. The next regular board meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Oct. 4 at the district office at the McDowell Building.

South Bloomfield Gets New Truck

The village of South Bloomfield has accepted deliver of a new International dump truck with snow plow from William Davie of H&S Service Inc., Circleville. The truck replaces a 1954 model according to Mayor Albert Roese.

One of the earliest and best of the Ohio landscape artists was George Jacob Beck, 1749-1812, who arrived in Cincinnati in 1790 as a scout with Anthony Wayne's army.—AP

Plutonium Used In Test Explosion

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A secret test explosion in the Nevada desert proves that plutonium from nuclear power plants can be used to make wartime bombs, a recently declassified report has shown.

Test results were declassified July 29 but were not publicly announced, the Los Angeles Times reported in its Wednesday editions.

In recent years, the U.S. government has been reluctant to export peacetime nuclear technology to foreign nations because of a belief that the plutonium used in power plants can be used to make nuclear weapons.

The Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA) said details of the test explosion conducted by the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory at the Nevada weapons test site were still classified.

Plutonium used in power plants contains about 24 per cent of a contaminating isotope, plutonium-240, while "weaponsgrade" plutonium contains less than 6 per cent of the contaminating substance.

But the test disclosed that more heavily contaminated plutonium used as fuel could also be used in weapons.

The newspaper said unidentified ERDA sources said the test results were declassified to lend added credibility to the Carter Administration argument that all forms of plutonium can be used in weapons and thus pose a potential threat to international security.

President Carter has attempted to dissuade nations with nuclear capability, such as France, from selling plutonium extraction technology to non-nuclear nations.

District Health Council Meet Set In Washington C.H.

The annual Washington C. H. District Ohio Health Council Meeting will be held at Grace Methodist Church, 301 E. Market Street, in Washington C. H., Thursday, October 6. Registration begins at 9:30 a.m. with the program beginning at 10 a.m.

Nutrition will be the general topic of the day. Mrs. Margaret Hinkle, R.D., will make a presentation dealing with attitudes toward nutrition. Mrs. Hinkle will report on the research results recently released by Dr. Lester Breslow and Nedra Belloc of the University of California, Los Angeles, who concluded that seven simple basic health habits are associated with increased life expectancy. Of these seven health behaviors, four are related to nutrition. They include (1) keep weight within normal limits; (2) eat breakfast; (3) eat three meals a day without eating between-meal snacks; and (4) keep consumption of alcohol down and under control. Mrs. Hinkle will discuss each of these topics in some detail and answer questions from the audience.

Extension Nutritionist Alma Saddam will present a slide-tape program on "Fad Diets Fool." In this presentation, she will discuss types of fad diets related to weight modification; health implications; how to evaluate reducing diets; and sensible suggestions for weight reduction. Fact sheets will be available for distribution.

Mrs. Patricia Thielen, Ohio Dept. of Health, will discuss hypertension and its associated problems, especially the role of diet in the treatment of high blood pressure.

A panel discussion of "School Lunch Programs" will be led by Robert Koon, Director, Division of School Food Services, Ohio Dept. of Education.

Documents Moved To OSU

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Some 20,000 articles by the late author Louis Bromfield will be moved, probably next week, from his Malabar Farm home to the Ohio State University branch campus library at Mansfield.

The Bromfield Trust gave the collection to the state at the request of C. J. "Bill" Solomon, curator at the farm. Solomon initially asked the documents be stored in a museum in the farm's basement, but the state Department of Natural Resources, which administers the farm, suggested the Mansfield campus.

Solomon has valued the collection at $150,000-$200,000.

Other panel members will be Guy Foster, Supt. of Schools, Miami Trace District School System and Janet Collins, Supervisor of Food Service of the same school system.

Information will be provided for club leaders so that these topics can be taught and discussed at club meetings. A nutrition packet for club lesson leaders will be available through the county extension office.

This meeting is sponsored by the Ohio Cooperative Extension Service. No reservations are required but a small registration fee will be charged. Call the County Extension Office for more details (phone 474-7534).

James Conrad Attends Bank School

James Conrad, The Second National Bank of Circleville, Circleville, Ohio was among those attending the 33rd annual session of the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Aug. 14-27.

The school is sponsored by the Central States Conference of Bankers Associations from 16 Midwestern states. About 1,500 bankers were enrolled this year from 45 states and Puerto Rico.

To be listed as a graduate of the school, a banker must attend three of the annual two-week sessions at UW-Madison and satisfactorily complete extension problems between the resident sessions. A faculty of about 150 instructors this year included bankers specializing in a number of fields, practicing lawyers, business executives, economists and members of about a dozen university and college faculties.

Dr. Herbert V. Prochnow, former president of the First National Bank of Chicago, is director of the school.

Child Care Center Planned At Teays Valley

A child care center is being planned by Teays Valley eighth grade girls home economics class on Sept. 27 and 28.

The program is for 3 and 4-year-olds. They will gather in room 23 of the Teays Valley building from 1:15 to 4:15 p.m. both days.

This program is designed to give the girls experience in taking care of preschool children. For more information, call 983-3121. A registration card should be filled out and returned to the school by Sept. 26.

Plutonium Used In Test Explosion

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A secret test explosion in the Nevada desert proves that plutonium from nuclear power plants can be used to make wartime bombs, a recently declassified report has shown.

Test results were declassified July 29 but were not publicly announced, the Los Angeles Times reported in its Wednesday editions.

In recent years, the U.S. government has been reluctant to export peacetime nuclear technology to foreign nations because of a belief that the plutonium used in power plants can be used to make nuclear weapons.

The Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA) said details of the test explosion conducted by the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory at the Nevada weapons test site were still classified.

Plutonium used in power plants contains about 24 per cent of a contaminating isotope, plutonium-240, while "weaponsgrade" plutonium contains less than 6 per cent of the contaminating substance.

But the test disclosed that more heavily contaminated plutonium used as fuel could also be used in weapons.

The newspaper said unidentified ERDA sources said the test results were declassified to lend added credibility to the Carter Administration argument that all forms of plutonium can be used in weapons and thus pose a potential threat to international security.

President Carter has attempted to dissuade nations with nuclear capability, such as France, from selling plutonium extraction technology to non-nuclear nations.

District Health Council Meet Set In Washington C.H.

The annual Washington C. H. District Ohio Health Council Meeting will be held at Grace Methodist Church, 301 E. Market Street, in Washington C. H., Thursday, October 6. Registration begins at 9:30 a.m. with the program beginning at 10 a.m.

Nutrition will be the general topic of the day. Mrs. Margaret Hinkle, R.D., will make a presentation dealing with attitudes toward nutrition. Mrs. Hinkle will report on the research results recently released by Dr. Lester Breslow and Nedra Belloc of the University of California, Los Angeles, who concluded that seven simple basic health habits are associated with increased life expectancy. Of these seven health behaviors, four are related to nutrition. They include (1) keep weight within normal limits; (2) eat breakfast; (3) eat three meals a day without eating between-meal snacks; and (4) keep consumption of alcohol down and under control. Mrs. Hinkle will discuss each of these topics in some detail and answer questions from the audience.

Extension Nutritionist Alma Saddam will present a slide-tape program on "Fad Diets Fool." In this presentation, she will discuss types of fad diets related to weight modification; health implications; how to evaluate reducing diets; and sensible suggestions for weight reduction. Fact sheets will be available for distribution.

Mrs. Patricia Thielen, Ohio Dept. of Health, will discuss hypertension and its associated problems, especially the role of diet in the treatment of high blood pressure.

A panel discussion of "School Lunch Programs" will be led by Robert Koon, Director, Division of School Food Services, Ohio Dept. of Education.

Documents Moved To OSU

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Some 20,000 articles by the late author Louis Bromfield will be moved, probably next week, from his Malabar Farm home to the Ohio State University branch campus library at Mansfield.

The Bromfield Trust gave the collection to the state at the request of C. J. "Bill" Solomon, curator at the farm. Solomon initially asked the documents be stored in a museum in the farm's basement, but the state Department of Natural Resources, which administers the farm, suggested the Mansfield campus.

Solomon has valued the collection at $150,000-$200,000.

Carter Welfare Reform Problems Outlined

SEATTLE (AP) — Out here, in a day-care center 2,700 miles from the White House, welfare expert Willie Williams sees a wild card in President Carter's complicated welfare package.

A seven-year welfare veteran who took a job as a day-care counselor and worked her way off the dole, Mrs. Williams says, "The jobs program will be a big help. But the pay is so low, people will need welfare anyways. So what's the point?"

The point, say Carter aides, is to hold down costs and to provide an incentive for public workers to seek jobs elsewhere. In hearings that are scheduled to begin this month, administration officials will try to convince Congress that his jobs approach will work.

Subpoena wages are just one of the problems that make the jobs plan the most troublesome element of Carter's package of expanded welfare coverage, tax refunds and work.

—Carter wants to move poor people out of the welfare system and into private jobs, but his program offers almost nothing to aid the transition. And in many areas, the private jobs just don't exist.

Labor Secretary Ray Marshall says this is the most serious weakness of the jobs plan.

—A huge welfare work force could hold down salaries for regular public employees doing similar work at higher wages. For this reason labor unions vigorously oppose minimum wage welfare jobs.

—There is a serious danger that some government officials will replace regular employees, paid from local tax receipts, with "bargain basement" public service workers paid from the welfare fund. The process, Marshall's No. 2 worry, is called "substitution."

San Francisco manpower boss Eunice Elton says: "If welfare workers are of any use at all, there will be a tendency to rely on them."

—As Mrs. Williams points out, the minimum wage won't allow the welfare work force to escape poverty without also drawing cash welfare benefits—especially in expensive cost-of-living areas like New York or California. Dependency on welfare will continue.

Typically, a mother or father heading a family of four would receive benefits of $1,444 to supplement the minimum wage of $5.12.

These are the key problem areas that surfaced in discussion with public officials, manpower experts, union leaders and welfare recipients from Seattle to Baltimore, San Francisco to New York.

The work requirement would force "employable" recipients to accept a job if one is available.

But where other mandatory work plans failed, Carter's could succeed because he offers more than ultimatums—he also offers jobs. And there is a wage incentive for people to keep them.

Says George Washington University manpower expert Sar Levitan: "You can't create jobs without spending money. You can't do it without dollar signs and zeroes."

Carter's plan has plenty of those: 8,800,000,000 dollars ($8.8 billion) earmarked to pay for the public service jobs.

The number of current public service jobs would be doubled at only a 49 per cent increase in cost because the current program for 725,000 jobs pays prevailing wages, usually much higher than the minimum.

Carter's plan would require an estimated seven million people who are eligible for welfare to work. Some will find low-paying, nongovernment jobs and will receive income aid from the government. But the economy doesn't absorb everyone who wants to work, and the public service jobs are planned to take up the slack.

Work requirements are attractive to many taxpayers who support the costly welfare system, but experts agree that jobs—not required participation—are what's needed to make the work plan succeed.

Study after study indicates that poor Americans want to work as much as the rest of us. Most recently the 10-year University of Michigan survey—"5,000 American families: A study in Economic Progress"—said poor Americans usually take work whenever they can find it.

It is hoped that the welfare work force will use public service jobs as a stepping stone to private employment. Public jobs lapse after 12 months and jobholders go on reduced welfare benefits for eight weeks in which they are supposed to seek a regular job.

If they come up empty, they are again eligible for a public service job. If one isn't available there is a safety net, a guaranteed income of $4,200 for a family of four.

"The safety net is critical here," says Arnold Packer, an assistant secretary of labor. The income net is especially important in areas of high unemployment where private jobs just don't exist.

Some poor people—"We don't know how many, exactly," says Marshall—will get help from state or local manpower officials in finding private employment.

Unions will seek assurances that regular workers, punching the timeclock at prevailing wages of $4 to $8 an hour in some cities, will not be replaced by low-paid members of the welfare work force.

The AFL-CIO says it will use its clout in Congress to defeat the low-pay provision and replace it with a prevailing-wage scale. And Jerry Wurf, president of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, says: "We stand together on this."

However, Baltimore manpower chief Marian Pines notes, "It would be next to impossible to move people out of public service jobs if we paid the prevailing wage. And it would cost a fortune."

The manpower officials believe one way around the thorny wage and substitution questions is to have welfare workers divide their time between public service jobs and training or job-search programs.

Another troublesome problem is that the Carter plan would phase out the current public service jobs, paying prevailing wages, established under Title VI of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act.

Mrs. Pines warns, "We've got big trouble if we lose this aid. A lot of cities would be totally screwed up."

In some troubled cities—San Jose, Calif., Hartford, Conn., and Newark, N.J., for example—one of every five city workers is paid with CETA money. New York City will count 28,000 city-CETA workers by the end of this year. These workers are paid the prevailing wages; many do regular jobs and they are eligible to join a union.

Some of the biggest welfare states actually lose money in the switch from Title VI to the welfare jobs program, and Jerry Wurf warns, "If Carter's program doesn't work in the big cities and the big states, it doesn't work at all."

The nine states that lose CETA money in the transition are New York, California, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Connecticut, Oregon, Hawaii, Nevada, Alaska and the District of Columbia.

Marshall is seeking an antirecession public service jobs program that would protect hardship areas independent of the welfare package, but the ultimate decision on that rests with the White House and Congress.

Local manpower officials will implement the jobs program, and they are worried about dozens of technical problems.

Benji Bigham, son of Mrs. Ramon Bigham has been a patient in the burn unit of Children's hospital for two weeks recovering from burns suffered in an accident at his home. He is improving and hopes to be home the last of this week.

The Laurelville Church of God will sponsor their annual fall yard sale at the church shelter house on Rt. 56, south of Laurelville, on Sept. 15 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Huffman (Ann Meenach) and children Chris and Wes hosted a family dinner at their home on Labor Day. Enjoying the carry-in dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Meenach, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robinette, Lee Ann and Colleen of Laurelville, Mark Chaffin of Kingston, Michele Robinette and Michael Moran of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Don Meenach, Lori and Darrin, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Valentine of Circleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meenach and Troy of near Tilton.

The family of Mrs. Nina Ricketts of Adelphi, and the late George Ricketts held a family reunion on last Sunday in the basement of the Colerain church. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Ricketts birthday and for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ricketts and twin daughters, Amy and Paige of Albuquerque, New Mexico who are visiting Ohio relatives. Others who were present included, Maurice Ricketts, Addis Ricketts, Mrs. Vera Garrett, Mrs. Pat Poling and Dane, Tammy Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hinton and Judy, Mrs. Kay Quillious and Angel, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Ricketts, Karen and Kris, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Reams and Mindy, Mrs. Jackie Downing, Dusty and Dawn, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wiggins and Jeremy, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Crosbie and Andy, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Garrett and Jennifer, Timmy and Charity Householder, Mr. and Mrs. Odd Tisdale, Beverly and Friend, Harrison Ricketts, Loring Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hinton Sr.

The Laurelville Senior Citizen Group met on Monday evening at the Laurelville park shelter house. After a picnic supper, Ernest Forster, president conducted the business meeting. The group sang Happy Birthday to Rev. Jacob Lahman who was celebrating his 60th birthday. Damon Pontious gave the treasurer's report. It was voted to meet from now on in the city building room joining the firehouse. Because that building is usually in use on Monday night, a new meeting night had to be chosen. From now on the group will meet on the 1st. Tuesday night of each month at 6 p.m. For entertainment the next time, every one is asked to bring some small wrapped articles to be used for Bingo prizes. The table committee for Oct. will be Golda Paxton, Elizabeth Forster, Frances McClelland, Vera Ebert, and Jack Notestone. Possible trips that could be taken yet this fall were discussed. A guest, Mr. Wesley Iiams of Shawnee, Oh. area representative for Golden Buckeye cards was introduced and discussed the use of the cards. Calico Cottage now recognizes the cards making four business places in Laurelville.

Members, please make note of the new meeting night. The next meeting will be Oct. 4 at 6 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Danner, and children Millie, Peggy, Mike and Herman Jr. of Norfolk, Va. were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hinton and attended the wedding of Miss Cindy Egan and Mr. Michael Anderson on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Leland Reynolds, local registrar now has a supply of Ohio Driver's Handbooks which drivers have been asking for.

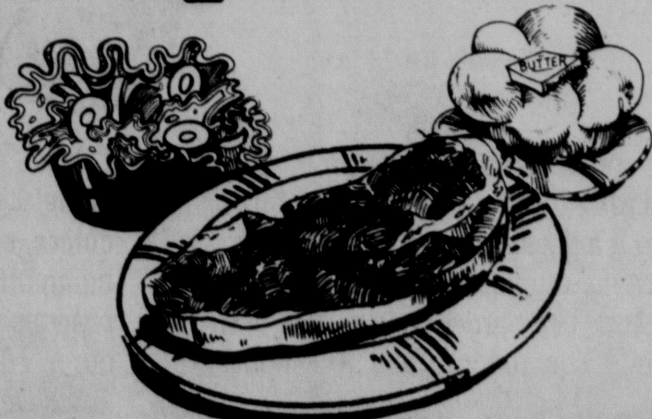

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Newland returned home last Friday from a weeks visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Darwin and Candy Eimers and baby daughter Dawn Marie of Sumner, Iowa.

Has any one in the vicinity of Kingston, or Meade seen two or even one beautiful big black and white male cat or cats, which may have appeared at some home as a stray in the past 10 days? They are the family pets of Pete and Geneva Newland and they escaped from the Kingston Veterinary Clinic on Sept. 6 while the Newlands were on vacation. If any one has any information about these pets, whose names are Snoopy and Tinker, please call 332-5221. A reward is being offered for their return. Snoopy is 9 years old and long haired. Tinker is two years old and has shorter hair. If some one is keeping them in hopes of raising kittens that look like them, they are wasting their time as both cats are neutered. Any one who has ever had a pet who was part of the family can understand how badly the Newlands feel, not knowing if they are alive and being cared for or if they have met with an accident along the road.

Sunday company of Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Hartsaugh were Mr. and Mrs. Vic Pontious of Amanda, and Mrs. Kathryn Faigley and Steve of Lancaster.

A class on Stove and Fireplace safety, wood burning qualities and supply will be held Sept. 29 at 7:30 p.m. at the Hocking Co. fair ground, Logan, O. in the Hocking Youth Center. Instructors will be Dave Booth, Vinton Co. Extension and Agriculture agent and woodstove owner, and Frank Newell, vice chairman, Ohio Tree Farm Committee and Forester. There is no fee charged and no pre-registration required. The public is invited.

The group sang Happy Birthday to Rev. Jacob Lahman who was celebrating his 60th birthday. Damon Pontious gave the treasurer's report. It was voted to meet from now on in the city building room joining the firehouse. Because that building is usually in use on Monday night, a new meeting night had to be chosen. From now on the group will meet on the 1st Tuesday night of each month at 6 p.m. For entertainment the next time, every one is asked to bring some small wrapped articles to be used for Bingo prizes. The table committee for Oct. will be Golda Paxton, Elizabeth Forster, Frances McClelland, Vera Ebert, and Jack Notestone. Possible trips that could be taken yet this fall were discussed. A guest, Mr. Wesley Iiams of Shawnee, Oh. area representative for Golden Buckeye cards was introduced and discussed the use of the cards. Calico Cottage now recognizes the cards making four business places in Laurelville.

Members, please make note of the new meeting night. The next meeting will be Oct. 4 at 6 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Danner, and children Millie, Peggy, Mike and Herman Jr. of Norfolk, Va. were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hinton and attended the wedding of Miss Cindy Egan and Mr. Michael Anderson on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Leland Reynolds, local registrar now has a supply of Ohio Driver's Handbooks which drivers have been asking for.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Newland returned home last Friday from a weeks visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Darwin and Candy Eimers and baby daughter Dawn Marie of Sumner, Iowa.

Has any one in the vicinity of Kingston, or Meade seen two or even one beautiful big black and white male cat or cats, which may have appeared at some home as a stray in the past 10 days? They are the family pets of Pete and Geneva Newland and they escaped from the Kingston Veterinary Clinic on Sept. 6 while the Newlands were on vacation. If any one has any information about these pets, whose names are Snoopy and Tinker, please call 332-5221. A reward is being offered for their return. Snoopy is 9 years old and long haired. Tinker is two years old and has shorter hair. If some one is keeping them in hopes of raising kittens that look like them, they are wasting their time as both cats are neutered. Any one who has ever had a pet who was part of the family can understand how badly the Newlands feel, not knowing if they are alive and being cared for or if they have met with an accident along the road.

Sunday company of Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Hartsaugh were Mr. and Mrs. Vic Pontious of Amanda, and Mrs. Kathryn Faigley and Steve of Lancaster.

A class on Stove and Fireplace safety, wood burning qualities and supply will be held Sept. 29 at 7:30 p.m. at the Hocking Co. fair ground, Logan, O. in the Hocking Youth Center. Instructors will be Dave Booth, Vinton Co. Extension and Agriculture agent and woodstove owner, and Frank Newell, vice chairman, Ohio Tree Farm Committee and Forester. There is no fee charged and no pre-registration required. The public is invited.

GETTING STARTED

THINGS ARE SHAPING UP

OUTSIDE FOR THE FIRST TIME

LAUNCHING AT DEERCREEK

For the past 3½ years Dick and Donna Hall have spent their weekends building a 20-foot cabin cruiser in their garage at 379 Northridge Road.

It was launched this summer for the first time at Deer Creek Reservoir and the Halls vacationed at Dale Hollow Lake in Tennessee with the boat.

Powered by a 115-horse motor, the boat will sleep four adults and has a galley and all the facilities.

Dick constructed the boat from marine plywood and oak which was covered with a fibreglass skin. The only mishap was when the skin peeled off the left side of the hull, but it has since been repaired. Dick used two plans, incorporating what he felt was the best of each into the construction of his boat.

IT FLOATS!

Refreshments were served at tables with colorful placemats by the hostesses, Cleo Good and Pauline Pearce.

MABEL WALKER ORIGINAL — Mabel Walker, the retired school teacher who has turned to quilt making, has an original design on display at the Third National Bank. She took the theme of her quilt, "buttons," from a fourth grade reader used in the county schools while she was teaching. It was the story of a little girl who could never stick to any project until one day she stilled the laughter of her school mates by making a card of buttons.

Southgate Seeks To Dismiss Suits

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Attorneys representing Southgate, Ky., a defendant in damage suits stemming from the Beverly Hills Supper Club fire, have launched a legal bid to detour suits from federal to state court.

A memo filed in U.S. District Court here Wednesday asked that most of the 33 suits seeking almost $1.5 billion against the city in the May 28 fire that killed 164 persons be dismissed.

The result could require that suits filed in federal court be refiled in state court.

The memo contends that Kentucky law states, regarding wrongful death, that "the law does not give a cause of action to a foreign personal representative." It refers to an executor or administrator of an estate who lives outside Kentucky.

Disallowing a personal representative to bring an action dates back to Lord Campbell's Act, passed by the English Parliament in 1846 and later adopted into Kentucky's Constitution.

The memo, filed by attorneys A.J. Jolly and Albert Root, notes that most of the suits name out-of-state executors or administrators. Thus, they do not qualify to file for and collect damages under the law of Kentucky.

According to the memo, the federal courts are bound by the state constitution to follow state law in such cases.

Jolly said, in the memo, that Southgate could have "sat back and permitted these plaintiffs to blow in the wind until after the statute of limitations" expired. But, he added, the city wants to have the other issues it has raised brought to a "just and early conclusion."

Disallowing a personal representative to bring an action dates back to Lord Campbell's Act, passed by the English Parliament in 1846 and later adopted into Kentucky's Constitution.

The memo, filed by attorneys A.J. Jolly and Albert Root, notes that most of the suits name out-of-state executors or administrators. Thus, they do not qualify to file for and collect damages under the law of Kentucky.

According to the memo, the federal courts are bound by the state constitution to follow state law in such cases.

Jolly said, in the memo, that Southgate could have "sat back and permitted these plaintiffs to blow in the wind until after the statute of limitations" expired. But, he added, the city wants to have the other issues it has raised brought to a "just and early conclusion."

CHS Home Opener Is This Friday

By CRAIG ALLISON
Herald Sports Writer

While county grid squads face stiff opposition tomorrow night, Circleville Tiger fans will find that the Red and Black have their hands full also.

Highly touted Hamilton Twp. comes to Roundtown for a visit to Tiger Stadium. According to grid boss Larry Cook, the Rangers are "big, strong, and very physical. They have a lot of veterans back this year, and they run a well balanced offense with a strong running game." And that's just the offense. Defensively, Cook says the Rangers play a very physical 5-2 defense, complete with an assortment of stunts and games. In a word, Cook says the Rangers are "just plain Good."

The Tiger eleven opened the current campaign at Chillicothe last week with a 9-0 loss. But in spite of the defeat, Cook and the CHS staff found bright spots. "We (the staff) felt that our men played good defense," stated Cook. Several times, especially in the last half, Chillicothe had several opportunities to score but didn't. Offensively, we thought the players did a good job, but they were very, very inconsistent."

So now that a stronger Ranger team will face the Tigers this week, what will Circleville have to do to get the win? Cook says that the Tigers will have to greatly improve their offensive consistency, and also stay sound in their defensive efforts and the kicking game. With three fumbles and two interceptions in the Chillicothe, the Tigers will also be looking to cut down the misplays and therefore run more of a ball control game.

Tigers stalking onto the field for the offense will include Mark Albright at tight end, and either John Frericks or Mike Brudzinski at split end. Larry Pontious and Paul Heffelfinger will operate from the tackles, and the guards will be Eric Berlin and Tim Pontious. Jeff Strawser will put the ball in play at center.

Calling signals will be either Rich Elsea or Jon Bakalus. Doug Brown will be the fullback, and Dave Marshall will run at tailback, with the wingback being Greg Berrigan.

Defending the big physical Rangers will be Albright at stand-up end and Jeff Pauley at Tiger end. Strawser and Heffelfinger will be at the tackles, and anchoring at middle guard will be Berlin.

Linebackers will be Marshall and Steve Vinkovich, Brown gets the nod at Tiger Man, with Brudzinski at five yard halfback. Berrigan will be the strong safety, and Joe Leahy will round out the defense at middle safety.

Injuries will not be a factor in Friday's contest for the Tigers. Jeff Haist will still be out, but is expected to return to contact drills next week. Haist was hospitalized last week with what doctors diagnosed as a tear in the windpipe. The injury was not suffered in football drills, and the wound is nearly completely completely mended now. Paul Thompson and Brian Allison, both out since two-a-day practices with broken feet, will return to action next week.

In summing up the contest Friday, Cook stated, "It's early in the season, and we want to bounce back from last week. We feel that we have a much better team than we showed, but the only way we can make people believe that is to go out Friday night and prove it. We feel the players are ready. Tuesday night we had probably the best practice since I've been at Circleville. Everyone was enthused, and people were making good crisp hits in the drills. It was really fun, and it puts everyone in a good frame of mind."

Kickoff is set for 8 p.m. Friday night in the home opener.

Iowa Lakes

Recruits Through Want Ads

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Iowa Lakes Community College recruits basketball players through the want ads.

Hugh Howard, the Iowa Lakes coach, ran a classified advertisement in the Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch in July seeking prospects 6-foot-6 or taller.

The novel approach has paid a pair of tall dividends — 6-8 Alvin Broadhurst and 6-6 Marshelle Simmons.

"I just wanted to let you know we recruited two players as a result of those ads," said Howard, telephoning the newspaper. "Right now it looks as if both will start for us this winter."

Both are from Goldsboro, N.C. Broadhurst spent the last two years in the Army. Simmons had what Howard called a bad senior season.

So how did two Carolinians know about an ad in the Midwest newspaper? Howard was asked.

"There was another 6-6 kid from Goldsboro who was visiting his sister in Columbus when the ad appeared," said the coach. "So when he contacted me, I called his coach."

"The coach told me that the boy hadn't played too much varsity ball, but he knew a couple of players who had who might help us. That's how we got them."

Howard may branch out for the 1978-79 season.

"Although the cost is pretty high," said the Iowa coach, "we may even try it in a couple of other different metropolitan areas. This year's ad really paid off."

Reds Nip L.A., 9-8

By BARRY WILNER
AP Sports Writer

Despite their nearly-hopeless positions in the National League divisional races, Cincinnati's Sparky Anderson and Pittsburgh's Chuck Tanner are keeping the faith.

Anderson's Reds came from behind with six runs in the final two innings to nip Los Angeles 9-8 Wednesday, leaving at four the Dodgers' magic number for clinching the Western Division. The Reds trail the Dodgers by 12½ games.

The Pirates were rained out after leading St. Louis 2-0 in the third inning, but that didn't dampen Tanner's spirits. With the Phillies losing to the Mets 1-0, Pittsburgh gained one-half game in the standings and is 7½ games back.

Elsewhere in the National League, San Francisco nipped Houston 3-2, San Diego took Atlanta 6-4 and Montreal outlasted Chicago 3-2 in 12 innings.

"That was a courageous comeback

we made," Anderson said after Ken Griffey smashed a two-run homer in the ninth inning to win the game. An inning earlier, the Reds scored four times, three on Cesar Geronimo's home run. George Foster also belted a homer, his 48th, tops in the major leagues, and knocked in his 137th run as the Reds beat Tommy John for only the second time ever.

John, 18-6, got home run support from Dave Lopes, Steve Yeager and Steve Garvey, who had four hits and his 30th homer.

Pittsburgh's plight is not quite as discouraging as Cincinnati's.

"We're not out of it until we're two games out and there's just one to go," said Tanner. "A collapse has happened before. One weekend can change a season. One club can get hot and another cold."

Mets 1, Phillies 0

Nino Espinosa outdueled Philadelphia mound star Steve Carlton to help the Pirates. Espinosa hurled a three-hitter, struck out four and walked three. He also knocked in the game's only run with a single in the fifth.

Giants 3, Astros 2

Rookie left-hander Bob Knepper carried a three-hitter into the ninth inning for the Giants but needed relief from Dave Heaverlo and John Curtis to hold off Houston.

Willie McCovey's run-scoring single in the sixth inning knocked in the decisive tally for the Giants.

Padres 6, Braves 4

Gene Richards, Jerry Turner and Dave Roberts each collected three hits in a 12-hit Padres attack. Turner singled in Richards with the tiebreaking run in the seventh inning.

Expos 3, Cubs 2

Andre Dawson tripled home Dave Cash with the winning run in the 12th inning for Montreal. The Expos' other runs came on a steal of home by Gary Carter on the front end of a double steal and Chris Speier's bases-loaded sacrifice fly.

Jackson Does His Thing As Yanks Beat Boston

By FRED ROTHENBERG
AP Sports Writer

Bunters build runs a base at a time. Home run hitters, an impatient lot, deliver them in four-base clusters.

Reggie Jackson is no bunter. In the ninth inning of a scoreless game between the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox, Jackson was flashed the bunt sign to advance Thurman Munson to second base. He squared around on the first and third pitches, but didn't offer at tosses by Boston's Reggie Cleveland.

"I had to talk to (third base Coach Dick) Howser about the sign because I don't bunt often enough to know it," said Jackson.

Unable to gently lay the ball down, Jackson worked the count to 3-2 and instead laid out the Red Sox, smacking his 26th home run of the season and giving the Yankees a 2-0 victory Wednesday night.

The triumph, the Yankees' second in two games in a crucial three-game series with the Red Sox, lifted New York 3½ games ahead of third-place Boston in the American League East. Baltimore, with 6-5 and 4-2 victories over Toronto, sneaked into second place, 2½ games behind New York.

Elsewhere in the AL, Detroit swept a pair from Cleveland, 5-3 and 2-1; Kansas City beat Oakland twice, 5-2 and 6-0; Minnesota blanked the Chicago White Sox 7-0; Texas edged California 2-1, and Milwaukee beat Seattle 8-5.

Orioles 6-4, Blue Jays 4-2

Lee May belted a two-run homer, his 23rd, in the first game and smacked a run-scoring double in the nightcap, pacing the Orioles to their sixth and seventh straight victories.

Royals 5-6, A's 2-0

The Royals continued to make a mockery of the race in the AL West, winning their 13th and 14th straight games, a club record and a major league high this season. The Royals' magic number now is nine; they lead second-place Chicago by nine games.

Dennis Leonard hurled an eight-hitter in the second game and Jim Colborn scattered seven hits but needed relief help from Larry Gura in the final two innings of the opener.

Rangers 2, Angels 1

Texas right-hander Doyle Alexander stopped California on three hits and became the winningest Ranger pitcher this season with 15 victories against 10 losses.

Texas' John Ellis drilled his third home run of the year in the third inning.

Tigers 5-2, Indians 3-1

A sacrifice fly by Ron LeFlore in the 10th inning gave the Tigers a doubleheader sweep. The Tigers had ended a sixgame losing string in the opener, in which Tim Corcoran doubled home two runs and Ben Oglivie pounded out four hits, including a solo homer.

Twins 7, White Sox 0

Dave Goltz, 18-9, checked the White Sox on seven hits and became the first pitcher to throw a complete-game shutout against them this season. The Twins snapped a six-game losing streak.

Brewers 8, Mariners 5

Sixto Lezcano's three-run homer in the fifth highlighted a Milwaukee comeback that enabled the Brewers to wipe out a 5-0 Seattle lead. Reliever Eduardo Rodriguez allowed Seattle just four hits over the final 7 1-3 innings.

Boobie Clark Starting Fullback

CLEVELAND (AP) — When the Cleveland Browns invade Cincinnati Sunday they could find a veteran fullback with a smug smile on his face.

Boobie Clark was named Tuesday to start at fullback for Cincinnati, and he was named ahead of some pretty strong competition, the Cleveland Plain Dealer reported today.

The Bengals used a second round draft choice to obtain the services of Pete Johnson, the 248-pound fullback from Ohio State. The protege of Woody Hayes was given a good shot at winning a starting job.

And there was Tony Davis to contend with as well. They called him "Tough Tony" after his rookie season in the National Football League last year. He appeared ready to challenge Clark.

Clark, however, had different ideas. The veteran from Bethune-Cookman, a 12th round draft choice in 1973, was a little irritated that anyone would suggest he might be in danger of falling to second or third.

Back during training camp he said, "I don't see anyone qualified to take my job. No offense to Pete or Tony...But I don't plan to play second fiddle or step aside for anybody."

Ken Norton To Fight Jimmy Young

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Ken Norton continues to wonder whether Muhammad Ali will ever fight him again.

"I'll believe it only when I climb into the ring with him," said the No. 1 challenger from Los Angeles, who beat Ali once and then lost two disputed decisions to the current heavyweight boxing champion.

Norton, at 223 pounds, first has a date with Jimmy Young on Nov. 5, and the two tuned up with easy victories in nationally-televised bouts at Caesars Palace here Wednesday night.

Norton says Ali wants to avoid him, but the heavyweight champion — who has a title fight on Sept. 29 against Earnie Shavers — has gone on record saying he would put his title at stake against the Norton-Young winner.

Young, a 213-pound Philadelphian, started slowly but picked up speed and boxed his way to a one-sided 10-round verdict over Jody Ballard, 205, of Houston.

Norton started even slower and got tagged a couple of times. But at the end of the fifth round he knocked out No. 10-ranked Lorenzo Zanon, an awkward 207-pounder from Milan, Italy. There were only two seconds left in the stanza when a left hook started Zanon on the way out, so the time goes as 3:08, eight seconds after the round's scheduled end.

Neither Young nor Norton said he was impressed by each other's showing, but each made a point of watching the other.

"I hope Norton doesn't think he's going to do the same thing to me," said Young after watching the kayo on television. "He doesn't hit hard enough to hurt me," said Norton of Young. "He can't punch, but he does have speed."

The two showcased in the Sports Pavilion of Caesars, where they'll fight for more than $1 million each in the Fall.

"Although the cost is pretty high," said the Iowa coach, "we may even try it in a couple of other different metropolitan areas. This year's ad really paid off."

Reds Nip L.A., 9-8

By BARRY WILNER
AP Sports Writer

Despite their nearly-hopeless positions in the National League divisional races, Cincinnati's Sparky Anderson and Pittsburgh's Chuck Tanner are keeping the faith.

Anderson's Reds came from behind with six runs in the final two innings to nip Los Angeles 9-8 Wednesday, leaving at four the Dodgers' magic number for clinching the Western Division. The Reds trail the Dodgers by 12½ games.

The Pirates were rained out after leading St. Louis 2-0 in the third inning, but that didn't dampen Tanner's spirits. With the Phillies losing to the Mets 1-0, Pittsburgh gained one-half game in the standings and is 7½ games back.

Elsewhere in the National League, San Francisco nipped Houston 3-2, San Diego took Atlanta 6-4 and Montreal outlasted Chicago 3-2 in 12 innings.

Jackson Does His Thing As Yanks Beat Boston

By FRED ROTHENBERG
AP Sports Writer

Bunters build runs a base at a time. Home run hitters, an impatient lot, deliver them in four-base clusters.

Reggie Jackson is no bunter. In the ninth inning of a scoreless game between the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox, Jackson was flashed the bunt sign to advance Thurman Munson to second base. He squared around on the first and third pitches, but didn't offer at tosses by Boston's Reggie Cleveland.

"I had to talk to (third base Coach Dick) Howser about the sign because I don't bunt often enough to know it," said Jackson.

Unable to gently lay the ball down, Jackson worked the count to 3-2 and instead laid out the Red Sox, smacking his 26th home run of the season and giving the Yankees a 2-0 victory Wednesday night.

The triumph, the Yankees' second in two games in a crucial three-game series with the Red Sox, lifted New York 3½ games ahead of third-place Boston in the American League East. Baltimore, with 6-5 and 4-2 victories over Toronto, sneaked into second place, 2½ games behind New York.

Elsewhere in the AL, Detroit swept a pair from Cleveland, 5-3 and 2-1; Kansas City beat Oakland twice, 5-2 and 6-0; Minnesota blanked the Chicago White Sox 7-0; Texas edged California 2-1, and Milwaukee beat Seattle 8-5.

Orioles 6-4, Blue Jays 4-2. Lee May belted a two-run homer, his 23rd, in the first game and smacked a run-scoring double in the nightcap, pacing the Orioles to their sixth and seventh straight victories.

Royals 5-6, A's 2-0. The Royals continued to make a mockery of the race in the AL West, winning their 13th and 14th straight games, a club record and a major league high this season. The Royals' magic number now is nine; they lead second-place Chicago by nine games.

Dennis Leonard hurled an eight-hitter in the second game and Jim Colborn scattered seven hits but needed relief help from Larry Gura in the final two innings of the opener.

Rangers 2, Angels 1. Texas right-hander Doyle Alexander stopped California on three hits and became the winningest Ranger pitcher this season with 15 victories against 10 losses.

Texas' John Ellis drilled his third home run of the year in the third inning.

Tigers 5-2, Indians 3-1. A sacrifice fly by Ron LeFlore in the 10th inning gave the Tigers a doubleheader sweep. The Tigers had ended a sixgame losing string in the opener, in which Tim Lincecum doubled home two runs and Ben Oglivie pounded out four hits, including a solo homer.

Twins 7, White Sox 0. Dave Goltz, 18-9, checked the White Sox on seven hits and became the first pitcher to throw a complete-game shutout against them this season. The Twins snapped a six-game losing streak.

Brewers 8, Mariners 5. Sixto Lezcano's three-run homer in the fifth highlighted a Milwaukee comeback that enabled the Brewers to wipe out a 5-0 Seattle lead. Reliever Eduardo Rodriguez allowed Seattle just four hits over the final 7 1-3 innings.

Boobie Clark Starting Fullback

CLEVELAND (AP) — When the Cleveland Browns invade Cincinnati Sunday they could find a veteran fullback with a smug smile on his face.

Boobie Clark was named Tuesday to start at fullback for Cincinnati, and he was named ahead of some pretty strong competition, the Cleveland Plain Dealer reported today.

The Bengals used a second round draft choice to obtain the services of Pete Johnson, the 248-pound fullback from Ohio State. The protégé of Woody Hayes was given a good shot at winning a starting job.

And there was Tony Davis to contend with as well. They called him "Tough Tony" after his rookie season in the National Football League last year. He appeared ready to challenge Clark.

Clark, however, had different ideas. The veteran from Bethune-Cookman, a 12th round draft choice in 1973, was a little irritated that anyone would suggest he might be in danger of falling to second or third.

Back during training camp he said, "I don't see anyone qualified to take my job. No offense to Pete or Tony...But I don't plan to play second fiddle or step aside for anybody."

25 Pacers Games To Be Televised

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The Indiana Pacers have announced that 25 games during the upcoming National Basketball Association season will be televised on WTTV of Indianapolis.

The games will be telecast throughout Indiana, as well as in parts of Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia at Illinois.

Veteran sportscaster Don Hein will do the TV play-by-play.

Ken Norton To Fight Jimmy Young

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Ken Norton continues to wonder whether Muhammad Ali will ever fight him again.

"I'll believe it only when I climb into the ring with him," said the No. 1 challenger from Los Angeles, who beat Ali once and then lost two disputed decisions to the current heavyweight boxing champion.

Norton, at 223 pounds, first has a date with Jimmy Young on Nov. 5, and the two tuned up with easy victories in nationally-televised bouts at Caesars Palace here Wednesday night.

Norton says Ali wants to avoid him, but the heavyweight champion — who has a title fight on Sept. 29 against Earnie Shavers — has gone on record saying he would put his title at stake against the Norton-Young winner.

Young, a 213-pound Philadelphia, started slowly but picked up speed and boxed his way to a one-sided 10-round verdict over Jody Ballard, 205, of Houston.

Norton started even slower and got tagged a couple of times. But at the end of the fifth round he knocked out No. 10-ranked Lorenzo Zanon, an awkward 207-pounder from Milan, Italy. There were only two seconds left in the stanza when a left hook started Zanon on the way out, so the time goes as 3:08, eight seconds after the round's scheduled end.

Neither Young nor Norton said he was impressed by each other's showing, but each made a point of watching the other.

"I hope Norton doesn't think he's going to do the same thing to me," said Young after watching the kayo on television. "He doesn't hit hard enough to hurt me," said Norton of Young. "He can't punch, but he does have speed."

The two showcased in the Sports Pavilion of Caesars, where they'll fight for more than $1 million each in the Fall.

Martin Man Of Confidence

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent
"We're going to win the pennant — I've never doubted that," Billy Martin said. "I felt that way last April. I feel that way now."

The scrappy little manager of the New York Yankees was a picture of contentment and confidence as he sat in the swivel chair of his Yankee Stadium office, puffing on a pipe, his feet propped on a desk.

The clouds of controversy that had swirled around his head in mid-season had evaporated. The Yankees had drawn first blood in the important showdown series against the Boston Red Sox. The infantile family feuds somehow had gotten lost in the mad rush toward another World Series.

"This is the kind of team that rises to the big occasion," Martin said. "It is at its best when the going is toughest."

The combative one-time Yankees infielder said he did not underestimate the Red Sox — "They always come out swinging" — but felt the schedule was the ally of the Yankees.

"The Red Sox have six games left with the (Baltimore) Orioles," he said. "That's the rub. I look for them to split those games 3-3." The Yankees meet Boston for the last two times next Monday and Tuesday at Fenway Park.

The telephone on Martin's desk rang repeatedly. Someone asking about tickets. A private call ("I'll call you later"). A business call. No call from owner George Steinbrenner.

"You seem to have run out of crises," someone said.

Martin laughed. "The last thing I want is another crisis," he said. "I want to keep everything nice and quiet."

Reggie Jackson is nodding politely now to Thurman Munson. Mickey Rivers is hitting game-winning home runs instead of being accused of loafing. And Graig Nettles, who rarely takes batting practice, is taking vicious cuts in the cage.

Martin's office, just off the players' dressing quarters, is a spacious room ringed with cushiony sofas and chairs, cluttered with baseball memorabilia, lined with book shelves.

A giant fish is mounted behind the manager's desk, a token of his other love, and close by a huge poster of Charles Schultz' Charlie Brown, standing morosely on the pitcher's mound under an umbrella in a pouring rain. The inscription: "Thought for the Day: A smile makes a lousy um-

Scores of Circleville players were, besides Pfleeger's 41, Mike McKelvy, 42; Tracy Wagner, 42; Eric Berger, 43; and Scott Sanders, 46.

Today the Tigers host Whitehall at the Pickaway Country Club. Circleville's golf record now stands at five wins and two losses.

brella."

On one shelf is a marker reading: "Billy Martin No. 1" and hanging on the wall nearby a poster defining what it calls, "Company Rules — Rule 1, The boss is always right; Rule 2, if the boss is wrong, see Rule 1."

A photo of a younger Casey Stengel in a Dodgers uniform and a color sketch of an older Stengel, doffing his cap, attest to Martin's devotion to his craggy old boss.

"No, I haven't patterned my philosophy as a manager after Casey," Billy said. "Everybody has his own way of managing. But I learned a lot from Casey as I did from all the managers I played for."

"One thing I learned. That was never to say 'I' when I meant 'we,' never say 'my ball club' instead of 'our ball club.'"

"Also that playing is more fun than managing — and pays a heck of a lot better, too."

Dodgers Can't Clinch Pennant Against Cincy

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds' only battle left is for second place in the National League West.

But after coming from behind to defeat division-leading Los Angeles, 9-8, Wednesday night, the Reds' Pete Rose looked on it as something of a consolation.

"At least," he said, "they can't clinch it here against us, and that means something."

The Dodgers' magic number for wrapping up the division remains at four after Cincinnati scored six runs in the last two innings to defeat Los Angeles ace Tommy John for the first time this season.

"Tommy John got the Dodgers where they are," said Rose. "He's the most valuable pitcher on their staff, maybe in the league. For us to score nine runs off him is really something."

The Dodgers had a seemingly comfortable 8-3 lead after the seventh inning with Dave Lopes, Steve Garvey and Steve Yeager slugging home runs.

But Cincinnati got within a run, scoring four times in the eighth inning, three of them on a home run by Cesar Geronimo. Ken Griffey's two-run homer in the ninth was the game winner.

Earlier, George Foster clouted his 48th homer, tops in the majors.

John started the ninth as the National League's leader in earned run average, at 2.48. After the Reds got through with him, the ERA jumped to 2.73.

"The ERA is the least of my worries," said John, who lost to Cincinnati for only the second time in 11 career decisions. "I wanted to win the game, but with two or three more starts I still got a shot at 20." John is 18-6.

Cincinnati manager Sparky Anderson had said a week ago that "they won't beat us in L.A."

"That's some satisfaction," he stressed. "The Dodgers are a very competitive club, their series in the playoffs against Philadelphia will be a good one and I rate it a tossup."

Garvey and Bill Russell each had four of Los Angeles' 16 hits, but the Dodgers stranded 14 runners. Garvey drove in three of the Dodgers' runs.

The three home runs increased Los Angeles' total to 173 for the year, the most they've hit in their 20 seasons in Southern California.

Pedro Borbon, 9-4, the third of four Cincinnati pitchers, earned the victory and Dale Murray, who pitched out of a ninth inning jam earned his fourth save.

In the final meeting of the season between the two clubs tonight, Tom Seaver, 17-6, will shoot for his 200th major league victory, opposing the Dodgers' Doug Rau, 13-7.

Commercial Point News

By ESTHER NULL, PHONE 877-3108

Sorry I didn't get any news in last week, but, I was on vacation in San Antonio, Texas and did not get home in time to get it in. While there we did quite a bit of sightseeing — The Alamo, The River Walk, Sunken Gardens, Mexican Market, Tower of Americas and many more. One thing for sure, it was hot — 100 degrees or more everyday. We visited at our daughter Paulas and her family while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Grace have just returned from taking a Bixler Tour, Private Motor Coach 18 day 4,000 mile tour of the Maritime Provinces, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia. On tour they had lunch at the "Cavendish Beach," on the North Shore of P.E.I., that just happened to be Evelyn's Birthday. They traveled on to Charlottetown on the P.E.I.'s to the "Inn on the Hill," much to Evelyn's surprise, the Host of the Inn on the Hill, handed her a florist box, which contained a corsage that her friends here, The Towlers and the Owsleys had wired to her, so all in all she had a very Happy Birthday, and we wish her many more.

Major and Mrs. Chas. J. Ferrari and son Bryan of Edwards A.F.B. California spent last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Warner. Todd and Melissa Will also spent the weekend with their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Warner.

Mrs. Ray Yeager and Doug had as weekend guests her sister and husband Loretta and Emmet Hill of Peytona, W. Va.

Ray Yeager spent last week at Little Rock, Ark. where he was representing the State of Ohio in the Winston P. Wilson N-16 Pistol Match.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Drake, son Randy and niece Kelly Duval have just returned from a 14 day tour of the beautiful State of Hawaii. While there they also toured the 4 other Islands. I'm sure they had a vacation they will never forget, and one they'd like to take again.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright spent the holiday weekend visiting with their daughter and family in Wisconsin.

We want to extend our Sympathy to Maxine Beckett and her family on the passing of her mother, Mrs. Laura Birkhead.

Elva Parmenter, Elzena Albright and Elva's Aunt Inez Cummins of Columbus attended the Heritage Days at the Green Farm this weekend.

Mrs. Frankie Parmenter spent several days in Mercy Hospital this past week, she is at home now and on the mend, we hope.

Miss Susan Parmenter has had a run of broken noses lately. She has had her nose broken three times in the past two weeks.

With the sick this week — Ann Reese is in University Hospital for tests and surgery Tuesday — The Rev. Wetherell is in Berger Hospital again — Mrs. Alberta Wright is at home but not in the best of Health at this time. Cards from friends at a time like this mean so much, let's send some tomorrow.

I see that the Jim Albright family have started construction on their new home, just north of the Alfred Finch residence.

Scioto Twp. Emergency and Fire Runs: Aug. 7, School, Susan Parmenter, 8, nose injury - transported by parents - Childrens; August 11, William Logan, 74 Washington Blvd., West Portsmouth, Motorcycle accident at M.C. Club, — possible fractured shoulder. Mt. Owens-Illinois Adds Solar Energy Products

The formation of a Solar Energy Products Group within Owens-Illinois, Inc., has been announced by Edwin D. Dodd, chairman and chief executive officer.

Dodd said that the organizational move represents an important step toward full commercialization of the company's Sunpak solar energy collector and perhaps other solar energy products.

The Sunpak collector, which uses an array of specially-designed glass tubes to convert sunlight into useful energy, currently is in operation at 14 installations in the United States and Canada as part of its ongoing development program.

O-I's Corporate Technology Group, which developed the Sunpak collector and has been responsible for the solar energy program thus far, will continue to provide technical support during the transition into the new organization.

The Solar Energy Products Group will be headed by Robert M. Davies. Davies joined Owens-Illinois in 1976 as general manager of electro-optical business operations, and since April 1, 1977, also has served as a corporate consultant, with responsibility for assisting the corporate planning department in the company's strategic planning process.

Prior to joining Owens-Illinois, Mr. Davies served as chairman and chief executive officer of Eltra Corp. and as principal executive officer of Sangamo Electric Company. He is a director of Dana Corp. and Toledo Edison Company.

"We are fortunate to have someone of Mr. Davies' qualifications and experience to handle this important assignment," Mr. Dodd said.

Davies will report to Richard L. Berry, Owens-Illinois vice president and chief of the Corporate Staff.

In announcing the reorganization, Mr. Dodd said that the energy crisis offers opportunities as well as problems to American business. "Solar energy is one of the most promising sources because it is plentiful, inexhaustible, and clean. We think that we have come up with the best way of harnessing it for practical use."

Dodd said that evacuated tubular collectors, such as the Sunpak collector, not only offer superior performance but are constructed of relatively small amounts of plentiful and inexpensive materials, such as glass tubing.

The tubes used in the Sunpak collector have an outer chamber that has been pumped to a high vacuum, providing a barrier against heat loss. Liquid or air circulated through the inner portion of the tube is heated by sunlight and then carried on for various heating and cooling applications.

The vacuum barrier permits operating at high efficiency despite adverse weather conditions and allows the collector to generate temperatures above 200 degrees Fahrenheit, which are needed for air conditioning applications and are beyond the capability of many solar collectors today.

The tube design was developed and patented by Y. K. Pei, of the Owens-Illinois research and development staff. The Kimble Division of Owens-Illinois manufactures the tubing, which is made of corrosion-resistant borosilicate glass.

Sunpak installations now in operation include two structures which have received national recognition for their energy-saving design features. They are the Terraset Elementary School, in Reston, Va., where 5,000 square feet of collectors are in use, and the Federal Office Building in Saginaw, Mich., with a 7,000-square-foot array of collectors.

The Great Pyramid of Cheops stands 481 feet high. It is constructed of 2.3 million blocks, each weighing 2½ tons.

The first person to go over Niagara Falls in a rubber ball was Jean Lussier. He made the drop July 4, 1928, over the Horseshoe Falls in a ball equipped with oxygen tanks and reinforced with cushions.

3 From County Named Scholarship Semifinalists

Approximately 15,000 students have been named Semifinalists in the twenty-third annual National Merit Scholarship Program. These academically talented students will have an opportunity to continue in the competition for about 3,900 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in the spring of 1978.

From the county, three students have been named semifinalists. From Teays Valley Gale Warner has been chosen. She plans to major in the sciences, specifically as an anthropologist or archaeologist.

From Circleville High School is Kathryn Fisher, and Jeffrey Haist. Miss Fisher plans to study to be a biological scientist. Haist plans to major in veterinary medicine.

Semifinalists are named from over 1 million students enrolled in 17,500 high schools who entered the 1978 Merit Program by taking the 1976 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test-National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT-NMSQT). Semifinalists are the highest-scoring students in each state; the number named in a state is proportional to that state's percentage of the nation's total graduating senior class. The Semifinalists, most of whom will complete high school and enter college in 1978, represent the top half of one per cent of the nation's most academically talented young people.

To be considered for scholarships, Semifinalists must advance to Finalist standing by meeting further requirements. These requirements include being fully endorsed and recommended for scholarships by their secondary school principals, presenting school records that confirm high academic standing, and substantiating their high qualifying test scores with equivalent scores on a second examination. Over 90 per cent of the Semifinalists are expected to qualify as Finalists and to receive Certificates of Merit next February.

All winners of Merit Scholarships will be chosen from the highly able group of Finalists.

What kind of day will tomorrow be? To find out what the stars say, read the forecast given for your birth Sign.

FOR FRIDAY

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): A day which should lift your spirits considerably. Personal relationships should be highly congenial, with romance accented during the p.m. hours. You may also get a good break in a financial matter.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): Keep domestic matters harmonious: Much of the burden may rest on YOU this weekend, but you can handle it. Emphasize discretion, level-headedness.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): If you stick close to facts and control that imagination of yours, you should get along fine during this busy, sometimes hectic, period. Pick your way discreetly.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): It's mostly up to you whether you will gain ground now or plod along indifferently. Some usual directives or suggestions will be absent. Be ready to crash your way through.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): What you want and what you really need may be widely different. Be realistic about your affairs and don't put the cart before the horse, falling witlessly into traps.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): You may have more to accomplish than anticipated, but do not let anything stymie you or your enthusiasm. Stress your philosophical side - and get going!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): Day calls for your best management. Make all moves deliberately and thoughtfully, and emphasize your innate poise and sense of balance.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22): You may now have an opportunity to advance through a unique idea. At least, make plans to project one at the right moment.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Mixed planetary influences. You may alternate between quick, aggressive moves and periods of slowing down, for no apparent reason. Aim at stabilization.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Don't go looking for mistakes and faults. You may find more than you bargained for. Stress your optimistic side. Creative pursuits especially favored.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): You are usually quick to grasp opportunity, often seek - and find - it where others wouldn't even dream of looking. And NOW is the time for making use of this fine trait.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Let good judgment guide your decisions. Figure out what you MUST have as against what you would like. The latter may have to be sacrificed in part.

YOU BORN TODAY are a scholar at heart, ceaseless in a quest for knowledge and a whiz at imparting your learning to others. You would make an educator par excellence or, along similar lines, an outstanding lecturer. You have a great love of nature and all things related to the earth; could shine as a botanist, agriculturist or geologist. Business will probably interest you less than a profession and, in the latter connection, the best outlets for your talents, aside from the aforementioned, include the law, the theater, literature and music. Traits to curb: moodiness and impatience with others. Birthdate of: Lauren Bacall, James Coburn and Peter Falk, stage, screen and TV stars.

Shoe Store Holds Grand Opening

associate vice president of Dick Kremer Shoes; Dave Long, associate and manager of the Circleville store; Patricia Hubbard, sales clerk.

Dick Kremer Shoes, 121 W. Main St., is observing its grand opening through Sept. 24 in its recently remodeled store.

During the grand opening, the store will be giving away free T shirts, balloons, lollipops, silver dollars and also a child's bicycle.

Kremer, a native of Marietta, said the store represents the most modern concept in shoe store design, and has separate departments for men's, women's and children's footwear. It has been completely renovated to accommodate the new business.

The building at 121 W. Main St. at one time was the place of business of Friedman's Bazaar, owned and operated by the parents of the late Ted Lewis.

"The store will handle a complete line of men's, women's, and children's footwear, with trained specialists on hand to insure everyone a correct fit," Kremer said. "Among the nationally known brands in stock will be Naturalizer, Lady Florsheim, Clinic, Daniel Green, Fanfare, Miller, Keds, Striderite, Converse, Florsheim, Pedwin and Evans. We operate modestly priced family shoe stores featuring fit, quality, value, fashion and service."

Manager of the Circleville Store will be Dave Long. He has had 15 years experience in retail shoe sales and managed Kremer's store in Newark. He is a native of Caldwell, O.

Other Kremer stores are in Marietta, Cambridge, Zanesville, Newark, and Chillicothe.

Dick Kremer has fitted good shoes for over 32 years in Ohio.

He and his wife, Margaret June, are the parents of four children, Laurel Ann, Richard Jr., who is manager of the Chillicothe Store; Deborah Kremer Brown and Charles. Mrs. Brown's husband, Eldon, is the associate vice president of the company.

CCCU Seminar On Children's Church Scheduled Here

The Churches of Christ in Christian Union are sponsoring seminars on Children's Church and the work of the Sunday School.

The First Church of Christ in Christian Union 436 East Ohio Street is the host church. The Convention will begin Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. with an emphasis on the Children's Church.

The Rev. William Gunno, of the Church of the Nazarene will be in charge of the seminar Friday evening. The Rev. Gunno is well qualified to assist in developing a children's ministry or to those who are interested in improving their techniques. Many of the techniques used in the children's church are readily adaptable to the Sunday School Teacher in their classrooms.

The session is open to the public and they are invited to attend. Saturday morning begins the General Sunday School Convention. Seminars on various areas of the Sunday School work will be conducted.

The various areas to be covered and the persons speaking on the subjects are:

The Rev. James Cook will be the director of music; the Rev. William

Gunno and Mrs. Donna Mitchell, Children's Church; the Rev. John Maxwell, Soul Winning; the Rev. Stan Toler, Visitation; Mr. Terry Toler and the Rev. Jerry Watkins, Promotions; the Rev. David VanHoose, Help! I Teach Teens; the Rev. Jack Norman, Recruiting Personnel; Mr. Terry Toler, Bus Attendance; the Rev. Elmer Winner, Teaching Children Grades 3-6; Mrs. Evelyn Mathers, Teaching Younger children.

The Convention speaker is Dr. Clyde Parker from High Point, North Carolina. Dr. Parker is associate pastor of the Wesleyan Church at High Point. His area of responsibility includes Sunday School administration.

Registration for the Convention begins at 8:00 a.m. The registration fee includes lunch. All Sunday School teachers and personnel regardless of church affiliation are invited to attend these seminars.

Grand Theft In County

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Tim Hasselbring investigated a reported burglary and grand theft that occurred at the Cecil R. Vincent residence, 5089 West Ford Road, between 6 and 10 p.m. Wednesday.

According to the report, culprits pulled a wire screen from a window and smashed the glass to gain entry. Fresh blood was found on the window sill and on a tablecloth near the window.

Cabinets and drawers in the home were opened and ransacked. A money box in the family pool room was opened and approximately $150 was taken.

The incident is still under investigation by Detective J. Phillip Brown.

Dick Kremer Shoes, 121 W. Main St., is observing its grand opening through Sept. 24 in its recently remodeled store.

During the grand opening, the store will be giving away free T shirts, balloons, lollipops, silver dollars and also a child's bicycle.

Kremer, a native of Marietta, said the store represents the most modern concept in shoe store design, and has separate departments for men's, associate vice president of Dick Kremer Shoes; Dave Long, associate and manager of the Circleville store; Patricia Hubbard, sales clerk.

women's and children's footwear. It has been completely renovated to accommodate the new business.

The building at 121 W. Main St. at one time was the place of business of Friedman's Bazaar, owned and operated by the parents of the late Ted Lewis.

"The store will handle a complete line of men's, women's, and children's footwear, with trained specialists on hand to insure everyone a correct fit," Kremer said. "Among the nationally known brands in stock will be Naturalizer, Lady Florsheim, Clinic, Daniel Green, Fanfare, Miller, Keds, Striderite, Converse, Florsheim, Pedwin and Evans. We operate modestly priced family shoe stores featuring fit, quality, value, fashion and service."

Manager of the Circleville Store will be Dave Long. He has had 15 years experience in retail shoe sales and managed Kremer's store in Newark. He is a native of Caldwell, O.

Other Kremer stores are in Marietta, Cambridge, Zanesville, Newark, and Chillicothe.

Dick Kremer has fitted good shoes for over 32 years in Ohio.

He and his wife, Margaret June, are the parents of four children, Laurel Ann, Richard Jr., who is manager of the Chillicothe Store; Deborah Kremer Brown and Charles. Mrs. Brown's husband, Eldon, is the associate vice president of the company.

TO SPEAK ABOUT ITALY — Lisa Leahy, shown here at the Trevi fountain, will be speaking 3:30 p.m. Monday in the Circleville High School auditorium about her year in Italy. She was an American Field Service exchange student. Applications and information about the Americans Abroad program will be available. The public is invited to view Lisa's slides.

CCCU Seminar On Children's Church Scheduled Here

The Churches of Christ in Christian Union are sponsoring seminars on Children's Church and the work of the Sunday School.

The First Church of Christ in Christian Union 436 East Ohio Street is the host church. The Convention will begin Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. with an emphasis on the Children's Church.

The Rev. William Gunno, of the Church of the Nazarene will be in charge of the seminar Friday evening. The Rev. Gunno is well qualified to assist in developing a children's ministry or to those who are interested in improving their techniques. Many of the techniques used in the children's church are readily adaptable to the Sunday School Teacher in their classrooms.

The session is open to the public and they are invited to attend. Saturday morning begins the General Sunday School Convention. Seminars on various areas of the Sunday School work will be conducted.

The various areas to be covered and the persons speaking on the subjects are:

The Rev. James Cook will be the director of music; the Rev. William

Gunno and Mrs. Donna Mitchell, Children's Church; the Rev. John Maxwell, Soul Winning; the Rev. Stan Toler, Visitation; Mr. Terry Toler and the Rev. Jerry Watkins, Promotions; the Rev. David VanHoose, Help! I Teach Teens; the Rev. Jack Norman, Recruiting Personnel; Mr. Terry Toler, Bus Attendance; the Rev. Elmer Winner, Teaching Children Grades 3-6; Mrs. Evelyn Mathers, Teaching Younger children.

The Convention speaker is Dr. Clyde Parker from High Point, North Carolina. Dr. Parker is associate pastor of the Wesleyan Church at High Point. His area of responsibility includes Sunday School administration.

Registration for the Convention begins at 8:00 a.m. The registration fee includes lunch. All Sunday School teachers and personnel regardless of church affiliation are invited to attend these seminars.

Grand Theft In County

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Tim Hasselbring investigated a reported burglary and grand theft that occurred at the Cecil R. Vincent residence, 5089 West Ford Road, between 6 and 10 p.m. Wednesday.

According to the report, culprits pulled a wire screen from a window and smashed the glass to gain entry. Fresh blood was found on the window sill and on a tablecloth near the window.

Cabinets and drawers in the home were opened and ransacked. A money box in the family pool room was opened and approximately $150 was taken.

The incident is still under investigation by Detective J. Phillip Brown.
